The PDC Journal Collection

APA Eastern Division meetings, December 27–30, 2007.

The Philosophy Documentation Center is pleased to offer this journal collection to participants of the American Philosophical Association Eastern Division meeting. Dozens of philosophy journals from many different publishers are listed in this catalog, and all are on display at the PDC's booth in the exhibit area. You may order any listed journal directly from the publisher with the order form located at the back of this catalog, or you may send your orders to us. We encourage you to browse through the collection and to take this catalog with you for future reference. Additional copies are available should you wish to forward a copy to your library or department Chair.

Please note that many of the journals listed here offer participants at this meeting a 20% discount on subscriptions. These are marked with an asterisk. If you have questions about any of the journals listed here, feel free to contact the Philosophy Documentation Center by phone at 800-444-2419; by e-mail at order@pdcnet.org; or visit us online at www.pdcnet.org.
