

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS AND SUBSCRIPTION INFORMATION

I once again want to thank the contributors and referees for this journal. Together they make possible something which was once only a dream. I continue to be astonished at, and grateful for, the quality of the work represented here.

Technical support and funding for typesetting, printing, and mailing is provided in part by The Ohio State University at Mansfield. Those who have secured institutional subscriptions to the Review, or who have paid Leibniz Society of North America dues or made cash contributions, are also thanked for generating funding. Philip Beeley, Dan Garber, J. A. Cover, Vincenzo De Risi, and Mark Kulstad have contributed creative ideas about how to improve the Review. The faithful support of the Society's Executive Committee and President has been invaluable, as has the help of Marna Utz in keeping track of membership information and preparing the mailings.

For information concerning membership in the Leibniz Society of North America, or for institutional subscription information concerning The Leibniz Review, see www.leibnizreview.com (which takes one off to Gregory Brown's Leibniz site) or write to Glenn A. Hartz, Editor; The Leibniz Review, Philosophy Department, Ohio State University, 1680 University Drive, Mansfield, Ohio 44906 USA. e-mail: hartz.1@osu.edu; phone (419) 755-4354; fax (419) 755-4367. Institutions may subscribe to the Review directly through the Editor (at the address above), or through an agency.

All articles and Leibniz texts are refereed. Unsolicited articles are not considered. Reviews and discussion pieces are typically limited to 10 manuscript pages, though sometimes longer contributions are accepted. The deadline for the 2009 issue is 1 September 2009. Authors need to follow typesetting guidelines for a Word document – available from the editor.
