NEWSLETTER #14

1. The SAAP Meeting at the APA in Boston will be on December 28, 1976 at 12 noon. The program is as follows:

   Speaker: William Barrett, New York University
   "The Future of Freedom"

   Commentators: Gail Belaief, Rutgers University
   Charles Sherover, CUNY at Hunter

   Chairperson: John E. Smith, Yale University

2. Evelyn Shirk, Program Chairperson for the Annual SAAP Meeting to be held at Fairfield University, March 4-5, 1977, has extended the deadline for papers to November 1, 1976. Papers should focus on the following themes:

   1. Philosophy of education arising from the American tradition.
   2. Lesser known figures in American philosophy.
   3. Contemporary philosophic work based on the American tradition but not historical.

   Please submit papers in triplicate with the name of the author on the cover sheet only. A one-paragraph abstract should accompany the paper which should be sent to:

   Professor Evelyn Shirk, Philosophy Department
   Hofstra University
   Hempstead, New York 11550

   Professors Morris Grossman (Chairperson), King Dykeman and Joseph G. Grassi will take care of local arrangements. The Fairfield Motor Inn will reserve rooms at a special rate for the meetings. Full details will be in the next newsletter.

3. The Spring issue of The Southern Journal of Philosophy contains the papers delivered at the successful Symposium on Justus Buchler.

4. With the newsletter is a copy of the mailing list of the SAAP. I would appreciate your sending me the correct addresses of those that are incorrectly listed.

5. If you have not as yet paid your annual dues ($5.00), please do so at your earliest convenience.
