History and Cumulative Table of Contents of the Newsletter for the Advancement of American Philosophy

by
Patrick K. Dooley

History of the Newsletter:
The Society for the Advancement of American Philosophy was formed in 1973, and our first annual meeting was held at Vanderbilt University in March of 1974. For the first fourteen years (issues #1 to #45) the Society for the Advancement of American Philosophy Newsletter was edited by Joe Grassi of Fairfield University. After Grassi’s death King Dykeman, also of Fairfield, edited issues #46 and #47 and then Ken Stikkers edited issues #48 and #49. I started editing the Newsletter with #50 (April 1988). Since then I have edited 54 issues—the latest being #103, January 2006. In March 2005 the SAAP Executive Board appointed Jessica Wahman Associate Editor of the Newsletter, and she has been on board since issue #102, October 2005.

Book reviews in the Newsletter:

For six issues-- #49 (November 1987) until issue #54 (November 1989)--Vincent Colapietro was the Newsletter “Book Editor.” In fact, during that period, Colapietro himself did half of the reviews (8 of 16). Colapietro resigned his book review editorship in December of 1989, and so with the January 1990 (issue #55) I added book review editing to my general editing duties.

The first annual June special book review issue appeared in June 1990 with issue #56. Since then fifteen more special book review issues have appeared along with regular mid-year October issues that have also contained book reviews. In addition to book reviews, fourteen “Review Essays” have appeared. In all, 356 books have been reviewed (plus another two or three dozen since each “Review Essay” has generally commented on two or more).

Thanks and Acknowledgments

I am grateful to many people for help, encouragement and advice. From the first issue I edited in 1988 and through 54 issues, now going on 18 years, St. Bonaventure University has generously provided funds, supplies and secretarial help (thanks especially to Sandi Goodliff). Thanks to Beth Singer who asked me to take on the Newsletter; no one could have a steadier, more ready and cheerful helper than our long-time secretary and treasurer, Ken Stokkers. Through the years I have asked for and received much good advice from my “Kitchen Cabinet” of Peter Hare, John McDermott, Larry Hickman and Nathan Houser. Grateful thanks to all the SAAP members who have written reviews; special thanks to those who have composed review essays. Finally I take this opportunity to give special mention to nine people who have been notably regular, prompt and even-handed reviewers: Cornelis de Waal, Antón Donoso, Bill Gavin, Anthony Graybosh, Dallas Ouren, George Stickel, Jerome Stone, Irene Switankowsky, and Roper Ward.
