

Schedule for the 1999 7th Annual Society of Catholic Social Scientists National Meeting-Conference

Friday-Saturday, October 22-23, 1999

Franciscan University of Steubenville, Steubenville, Ohio

Friday, October 22

9:00-10:25 a.m.

Catholic Social Science Review Editorial Board Meeting.

10:30-11:00 a.m.

Welcome - Stephen M. Krason, SCSS President; Group Prayer led by Rev. Edward Krause, C.S.C., SCSS Chaplain; Conference Announcements - Stephen M. Krason and Darci Lanagan, Franciscan University of Steubenville Christian Conference Office.

11:00 a.m.-12:00 noon - Plenary Session

Speaker: Sister Margherita Marchione, Ph.D., emeritus professor of Italian literature, Fairleigh Dickinson University, author of Yours Is a Precious Witness: Memoirs of Jews and Catholics in Wartime Italy. Topic: "The Truth about Pope Pius XII and the Holocaust." Co-sponsored with Franciscan University of Steubenville's Political Science Program and Political Science and Pre-Law Association. Funded by Franciscan University's Political Science Program.

University Mass at 12:05 p.m. in Christ the King Chapel

1:00-2:30 p.m.

Panel: America, Modernity, and the Culture of Death

1. Kimberly Shankman, Ripon College - "Natural Law Constitutionalism and the Culture of Death"
2. John Stack, Northern Illinois University - "Alexander Hamilton on the Virtues of the Commercial Republic: The Implications for a Culture of Life"
3. Carson Holloway, Concord College - "Modern Liberalism and the Culture of Death"

Discussants: Gary D. Glenn, Northern Illinois University, Robert Phillips, Wheeling Jesuit University

Chairman: Gary D. Glenn, Northern Illinois University

Session: Topics in European and American Catholic History

1. Robert F. Gorman, Southwest Texas State University - "Recovered Memories: A Comparison of Ancient and Modern Church Histories"
2. Thomas E. Woods, Jr., Columbia University - "Ever Ancient, Ever New: Catholic Intellectuals and the Progressive Era"

Moderator: Susan Nicassio, University of Southwestern Louisiana

3:00-4:30 p.m.

Session: Catholicism and National Political and Social Questions: The Cases of the Philippines and the United States

1. Emma R. Roxas, Human Life International-Asia - "Faith at the Crossroads: A Critique of Philippine Social Policy/Life from the Standpoint of Catholic Social Teaching"
2. Ryan J. Barilleaux, Miami University of Ohio - "How Should Catholic Citizens Decide for Whom to Vote?"

Moderator: John J. Schrems, Villanova University

Session: Economics, the Common Good, and Human Good

1. Andrew Yuengert, Pepperdine University - "The Common Good for Economists"
2. Edward Hadas, Plater College (Oxford, England) - "The Concept of the 'Economic Good'"

Moderator: Jean-Francois Orsini, St. Antoninus Institute

5:00-6:15 p.m. - Disciplinary Section Meetings

1. Economics/Business Section
2. History Section
3. Political Science Section
4. Psychology/Psychiatry/Mental Health Group
5. Philosophy/Theology/Health Care Ethics Section
6. Sociology/Social Work Section

6:15-6:45 p.m. - Meeting of Disciplinary Section Chairmen

7:00-8:15 p.m. - Dinner

8:30-9:45 p.m. - Plenary Session

Speaker: Dr. James Hitchcock, noted Catholic historian from St. Louis University.
Topic: "The Future of Religion in America." This talk doubled as the 3rd Annual Christopher Dawson Lecture, co-sponsored and funded by the Department of History, Humanities, and Political Science of Franciscan University of Steubenville. Reception for Dr. Hitchcock and Sister Margherita Marchione in the Gallery after the lecture.

Saturday, October 23

7:45-7:55 a.m.

Group Prayer led by Rev. Edward Krause, C.S.C., SCSS Chaplain

8:00-9:30 a.m.

Session: Social, Philosophical, and Theological Reflections on Human Dignity and the Respect for Human Life

1. John F. Crosby, Franciscan University of Steubenville - "Why Persons Have Dignity"
2. D. Brian Scarnecchia, Franciscan University of Steubenville - "Overpopulation Demystified: An Analysis of Population Crisis Ideology"

Moderator: Craig Paterson, St. Louis University

Workshop: Teaching with a Catholic Consciousness: A Workshop for College Social Science Faculty on How We Integrate our Faith with Our Teaching Practice"

Short presentation and coordination by Stephen Sharkey, Alverno College - active participation by attendees in small groups and then in the larger overall group.

Session: Catholicism and Psychology

1. Robert Kugelman, University of Dallas - "An Analysis of the American Catholic Psychological Association, 1948-68"

Discussant: Charles N. Fischer, Franciscan University of Steubenville

Moderator: Richard W. Cross, Franciscan University of Steubenville

Session: Evangelization

1. Richard J. Chacon, El Camino College - "From Blowguns to Bibles: Comparing Catholic and Protestant Methods of Missionization Among the Achuar Indians of the Ecuadorean Amazon"

2. Dominic Aquila, Franciscan University of Steubenville - "Evangelization through Ethnicity"

Moderator: Michael Coulter, Grove City College

10:00-11:25 a.m.

Session: Economic Thought, Economic Issues, and Catholic Social Teaching

Rev. Joseph M. de Torre, University of Asia and the Pacific (The Philippines) - "Aristotle and Economics: Lights and Shadows"

Moderator: Andrew Yuengert, Pepperdine University

Session: The Family and Education

1. G. Daniel Harden, Washburn University of Topeka - "The Seductive Myth of the Democratic K-12 Classroom"

2. Andrew C. Pollard, State University of New York at Buffalo - "Modernity and Subsidiarity: A Contribution to the Sociological Description of Natural Family Planning and Home Schooling"

Moderator: Stephen Sharkey, Alverno College

Session: Religion, History, and Cultural Life

1. Susan Nicassio, University of Southwestern Louisiana - "Opera and Faith: The Medium and the Message at the French Opera in 19th Century New Orleans"

2. Humphrey Waldock - retired attorney, West Vancouver, B.C. "Caesaropapism, the Protestant Achilles' Heel"

Moderator: Dominic Aquila, Franciscan University of Steubenville

12:30-1:45 p.m. – Luncheon and SCSS Business Meeting

Brief remarks by Fr. Michael Scanlan, T.O.R., President of Franciscan University of Steubenville; Business meeting was conducted by Dr. Stephen M. Krason, SCSS President

2:00-3:30 p.m.

Session: Reflections on Selected Modern Perspectives and Movements Seeking Social and Economic Justice

1. Thomas R. Rourke and Rosita Chazarreta Rourke, both Clarion University of Pennsylvania - "The Theology of Liberation in the Neoliberal Age"

2. Charles Cargille, Louisiana State University School of Medicine - "The Economy of Sharing of Chiara Lubich and the Binary Economy of Louis Kelso: A Comparison"
Moderator and Discussant: Andrew Yuengert, Pepperdine University

Session: The History and Nature of Law and Constitutionalism

1. Joseph Almeida, Franciscan University of Steubenville - "An Historical Investigation of the Idea of 'Natural Law' in the Worldview of Writers of the Classical Tradition of Greece and Rome"
2. Humphrey Waldo, retired attorney, West Vancouver, B.C. - "Words or The Word? Constitutional Interpretation or Divine Principle?"

Moderator: Nicholas C. Lund-Molfese, Salve Regina University

Session: Great Catholic Thinkers and their Themes

1. William R. Marty, University of Memphis - "Virtues Gone Mad: Reflections Occasioned by G. K. Chesterton"
2. Rev. Msgr. George P. Graham, Diocese of Rockville Centre - "Luigi Sturzo: A Prophet for Today"

Moderator: Kenneth L. Grasso, Southwest Texas State University

Panel: Modern Science and the Culture of Death

E. Michael Jones, Editor, Culture Wars - "Sexual Liberation as a Tool of Political Control"

David J. Peterson - "The Abuse of Science in the 20th Century: The Case of Bertrand Russell"

Chairman: E. Michael Jones, Editor, Culture Wars

4:00-5:30 p.m.

Panel: Developing a Measurement Instrument for Religiosity

Panelists: Ron Wallace, Christ the Redeemer School District (Okotoks, Alberta)

John P. Nelson, psychiatrist in private practice

Elizabeth Ring-Cassidy, de Veber Institute (Toronto, Ontario)

William R. Marty, University of Memphis

Chairman: Jean-Francois Orsini, St. Antoninus Institute

Session: Two Important Matters for the Church: Vocations and Health Care

1. Andrew Yuengert, Pepperdine University - "Do Bishops Matter? An Empirical Investigation of Ordinations to the Priesthood"
2. Craig Paterson, St. Louis University - "Justifying a Right to Adequate Health Care in the Light of Catholic Social Thought"

Moderator: John J. Schrems, Villanova University

Session: Pro-Life Issues and the Right to Life Movement

1. Nicholas C. Lund-Molfese, Salve Regina University - "Societal Assumptions on Human Suffering and the Legal Regulation of Euthanasia and Abortion"

2. Keith Cassidy, University of Guelph (Ontario) - "Social Movement Theory and the Right to Life Movement"

Moderator: Thomas E. Woods, Jr., Columbia University

Session: Philosophical and Theological Responses to Theories of Moral Relativism in the Post-Modern World

1. Richard Cain, Wheeling Jesuit University - "From Human Nature to Authentic Subjectivity in Moral Theology: Insight or Oversight?"

2. Scott Eaton Smith, University of Kansas - "After Deconstruction: Picking Up the Pieces of a Second Babel Thomistically"

Moderator: Rev. Joseph M. de Torre, University of Asia and the Pacific (The Philippines)

7:30-10:00 p.m. - SCSS Board of Directors Meeting