NOTES AND NEWS

THE programme for the season of 1904 of the Glenmore Summer School of the Culture Sciences, founded in 1889 by Thomas Davidson, has been issued. The session will begin on July 11 and extend to September 3. Lectures are announced for Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Fridays at 11 a. m., and for Sundays at 11:30 a. m. There will be informal discussions relative to the subjects of the lectures of each week on Wednesday evenings. The following lectures are announced: weeks beginning July 11 and 18, Charles W. Bakewell, Ph.D., of the University of California, on 'The Philosophy of Plato'; week beginning July 25, Leslie Willis Sprague, Lecturer for American University Extension Society, Philadelphia, on 'Ralph Waldo Emerson'; week beginning August 1, Charles G. Child, Ph.D., L.H.D., of the University of Pennsylvania, on 'The Making of English Literature'; week beginning August 8, Hon. Chester Holcombe, A.M., Ex-Minister to China, Lowell Institute Lecturer, 1902, on 'The Religion and Literature of China'; week beginning August 15, Felix Adler, Ph.D., of Columbia University, on 'The General Theory of Social Ethics,' and Edward G. Spaulding, Ph.D., of the College of the City of New York, on 'Dogmas in Philosophy and Science'; week beginning August 22, Alvin S. Johnson, Ph.D., of Columbia University, on 'Some Aspects of the Labor Question'; week beginning August 29, J. Mark Baldwin, Ph.D., LL.D., of Johns Hopkins University, on 'Social Psychology.' There is a possibility that a few additional lectures may be given during the summer by Professor W. T. Brewster, Ph.D., of Columbia University, and by Professor Lightner Witmer, Ph.D., of the University of Pennsylvania on Literature and Psychology respectively. For particulars of the session, Professor Stephen F. Weston, of Yellow Springs, Ohio, should be addressed.

At a meeting of the Trustees of Columbia University on May 2, a gift to establish a new professorship of philosophy was announced. The Trustees voted to appoint to the chair John Dewey, Ph.D., head professor of the department of philosophy in the University of Chicago since its foundation. Professor Dewey has accepted and will offer courses at Columbia beginning with the second semester of the academic year 1904-05.

PROFESSOR EDWARD BRADFORD TITCHENER completed on May 3, a course of four lectures at Columbia University, on 'The Psychology of the Affective Processes' and 'The Revival of Psychophysics.' On Monday evening, May 2, he met the Psychological Journal Club for a general discussion of his lectures.

PROFESSOR PAUL HANUS, who holds the chair of education at Harvard University, will be given leave of absence next year, and will spend the time making a study of foreign systems of school administration. Professor George Santayana, of the department of philosophy, will also spend the year abroad.

IN July Professor G. Stanley Hall and Professor J. Mark Baldwin are to lecture in the Summer School of the South at the University of Tennessee.

DR. G. DAWES HICKS has been appointed to the chair of moral philosophy in University College, London, made vacant by the resignation of Dr. James Sully.

IT is announced that Professor James Ward, of Cambridge University, will lecture before the Summer School of the University of California, and will also be present at the Congress of Arts and Sciences in St. Louis.
