They will consist of writings by the Staff of the Department of Philosophy, by its graduates, by its actual students, or by others whom the Department may invite, and will be under the editorial supervision of the head of the Department, Professor G. It is in the form of a Festschrift, dedicated to Professor Howison on the occasion of his seventieth birthday, and contains papers by twelve graduates of the Department, on various philosophical problems. The second volume is now in progress and will be published in separate numbers. The first number will consist of two essays by Professor Howison, on "The Place of Philosophy in the Field of Knowledge," and will be principally concerned with a systematic inquiry into the Conceptions Fundamental to Philosophy and into its Methods.
