We need to accept different people for who they are.

How can fairness and equality help improve a community?

It is more said than everyone kindly around you or try treat them can help and in

Often we think of all communities as kind, helpful and inclusive but lots of communities will harshly judge you on your beliefs, culture, gender, and race.
COMMUNITY

All communities are different and can't be expected to have the same needs!

It's easier to treat fairly and kindly if you who frustrate has different beliefs.
