1. Call for Papers

The Program Committee for the 1983 meeting invites anyone who wishes to present a paper in any area of American philosophy, and especially to papers dealing with the philosophy of the Founding Fathers anti-foundationalism and John Dewey. Please send one copy to each of the three Committee members. Also include a one-paragraph abstract with your paper:

King J. Dykeman
Dept. of Philosophy
Fairfield University
Fairfield, CT 06430

Marjorie Miller
Dept. of Philosophy
SUNY
Purchase, NY 10577

Thomas Olszewsky
Dept. of Philosophy
Univ. of Kentucky
Lexington, KY 40506

The deadline for submission of papers is Dec. 1, 1982. Reading time for papers accepted must not exceed 20 minutes. In preparing your copy please omit your name and address from all pages except the title sheet.

On the basis of the papers presented at the meeting there will be a prize of $100, The Douglas Greenlee Award, presented for the best paper from an author who has received a Ph.D. within the past five years.

2. At the APA Pacific Division Meetings the SAAP presented the following program:

Chair: Jacquelyne Ann Kegley (Bakersfield)
Speaker: Konstantin Kolenda (Rice)
"Eudaimonism: A New Direction in American Philosophy."
Commentator: David R. Bell (University of Glasgow)

3. The Proceedings of SAAP Conference sponsored by the California Council of the Humanities has been published as A New Challenge to the Educational Dream: The Handicapped. A copy may be obtained by sending $1.25 to Dr. Jacquelyn A. Kegley, Phil. & Rel. Studies, California State College, Bakersfield, CA 93309.

4. A copy of the SAAP Constitution is enclosed.

5. Dues:

A reminder to pay your dues for the year 1982 which begins with the Annual March Meeting (1982-83). A dues notice will be sent under separate mailing. If you do not receive a notice it is because you have already paid your 1982 dues.
