

Schedule of Presentations for the First Annual Society of Catholic Social Scientists’
National Conference

Saturday, March 27, 1993
at Franciscan University, Steubenville, Ohio

8:00 - 9:00 a.m.

1. Joseph Mauceri, M.D. in private practice, “The Separation of Medical Science from Religion and the Emergence of Medicine as Ideology in the Twentieth Century”
2. Joseph A. Varacalli, Nassau Community College-SUNY, “Catholics and Politics in Post-World War II America: Some Key Questions”
3. Francis Graham Lee, St. Joseph’s University of Pennsylvania, “Should We Hold These Truths? A Reappraisal of the Murray-Drinan View of Religious Liberty Under the Constitution”
4. Frank Brown, DePaul University, “Catholic Social Thought and Economic Science”

9:15 - 10:15 a.m.

1. Michael Naughton and Robert G. Kennedy, both University of St. Thomas, Minnesota, “Executive Compensation: An Evaluation from the Catholic Social Tradition”
2. Dominic A. Aquila, Empire State College-SUNY, “The Limits to the Idea of ‘Structures of Sin’”
3. Thomas Droleskey, Morningside College, “The Supremacy Clause and the United States Constitution: Supplanting the Authority of Christ and His Holy Church”
4. Joseph Heim, California University of Pennsylvania, “Lord Acton, the Catholic Conscience, and the Advance of Democracy in Victorian England”

10:30 - 11:30 a.m.

1. Samuel A. Nigro, M.D. psychiatrist in private practice, “Male-Female Differences in Natural Law”
2. Anthony Haynor, College of New Rochelle, “Catholic Social Teaching in a Post-Modern Society”
3. Gregory Gronbacher, Milltown Institute of Theology and Philosophy, Dublin, Ireland, in absentia (paper read by Stephen Krason), “The Personalistic Philosophy of Karol Wojtyla and Catholic Social Thought”

4. Carmine Gorga, Polls-tics, Inc., “Four Economic Rights: Social Renewal Through Economic Justice for All”

2:00 - 3:00 p.m.

1. Nestor Kohut, John Paul II Family Communiversity, “Transforming Unjust Social Structures in Family Life”
2. Edward King, Montreal Catholic School Commission, “Christopher Dawson on the Spiritual Vacuum in Modern Culture and the Future of Christian Culture”
3. John Walsh, California University of Pennsylvania, “The School Choice Issue”
4. Joseph A. Stibora, University of Dallas, “Liberty and the Rule of Law in Pope Leo XIII”

3:15 - 4:15 p.m. (Panel until 4:30)

1. Panel: John J. Carrigg, Franciscan University of Steubenville, Warren H. Carroll, Christendom College, Donald J. D’Elia, SUNY-College at New Paltz, “Teaching History in a Catholic Context”
2. Frank Cummings, freelance writer, “Intellectual Freedom Within the Context of Present-Day Socio-Political Juridical Thought: A Catholic Overview”
3. John Gueguen, Illinois State University, Workshop: “Teaching the Church’s Social Doctrine in a Secular University” and presentation of materials
4. William J. Monahan, Jr., St. Louis University, “The Language of Abortion: The Behavioral Implications of Pro-Choice Rhetoric”

Schedule of Presentations for the Second Annual Society of Catholic Social Scientists'
National Conference

Friday-Saturday, November 4-5, 1994,
at Franciscan University, Steubenville, Ohio

8:00 - 9:30 a.m.

Pro-Life Developments on Both Sides of the Border: U.S. and Canada

1. Elizabeth Cassidy, Human Life Research Institute, "The Crisis Mothers' Project in Canada"
2. Keith Cassidy, University of Guelph, "The U.S. Right to Life Movement and Electoral Politics, 1972-1992"
3. Donald DeMarco, University of St. Jerome's College, "Evaluating the Final Report of the Royal Commission on New Reproductive Technologies—Proceed with Care"

Catholic Historical Topics I

1. Joseph C. Heim, California University of Pennsylvania, "Jacques Maritain and the Spanish Civil War"
2. John Crosby, Franciscan University of Steubenville, "Max Scheler on the Moral and Religious Solidarity of Mankind"
3. Dominic A. Aquila, Franciscan University of Steubenville, "The Hard-Won Hope of Christopher Lasch"

Shaping Psychology According to the Catholic Understanding of Man

1. Madeline Greenberg, Fielding Institute, "Made in His Image and Likeness: An Argument for a Catholic Social Psychology"
2. George E. Maloof, M.D., California Department of Corrections, "Divine Filiation as Protection Against Mental Illness"
3. Jean-Francois Orsini, St. Antoninus Institute, "Scientific and Philosophic Psychology: Some Consequences for Organizations"

The Basic Principles Needed to Shape a Good Political and Social Order

1. Eduardo J. Echeverria, Molloy College, "Freedom, Solidarity, and Truth: Christian Humanism versus Liberal Ironism"
2. Raphael T. Waters, Niagara University, "The Nature and Properties of the Common Good"
3. Stephen M. Krason, Franciscan University of Steubenville, "The Great Classical Political Philosophers (Plato, Aristotle, and Cicero) on the Nature of a Good Political Order"

9:45 - 11:15 a.m.

Christianity, the Sexual Revolution, and the Return to Chastity

1. Rev. Edward Krause, C.S.C., Gannon University,
“The Bible and the Sexual Revolution”
2. John F. Kippley, Couple to Couple League, “The Sexual Revolution:
How Did We Get There and Is There a Way Home”?
3. Benjamin Alexander, Franciscan University of Steubenville,
“The Successes of Teen-age Chastity Programs Under the Adolescent Pregnancy Act”

Education, Philosophy, and Political Thought

1. Donald J. D’Elia, SUNY-College at New Paltz,
“Dr. Benjamin Rush and the Christian Origins of American Education”
2. G. Daniel Harden, Washburn University,
“Gnosticism and Ideology in American Education”
3. Stephen M. Krason, Franciscan University of Steubenville,
“Important Twentieth Century Books About Education”

The Structural Economic Causes for the Breakdown of the Moral Order

1. Rev. John Miller, C.S.C., Editor, Social Justice Review
2. Rev. Matthew Habiger, O.S.B., Human Life International
3. Norman Kurland, Center for Economic and Social Justice

Catholic Critiques of the Contemporary Political and Cultural Condition

1. Joseph A. Varacalli, Nassau Community College-SUNY, “Catholics and Politics in Post-World War II America: A Sociological Analysis”
2. Thomas A. Droleskey, Long Island University-C.W. Post College, “Divini Redemptoris and Centesimus Annus: Applying Papal Critiques of Political Ideology to the Contemporary American Political Experience”
3. Rev. Robert J. Batule, Diocese of Rockville Centre, “Catholicism and Culture: A Late 20th-Century Assessment”

Psychiatric Issues Associated with Abortion and Its Aftermath

1. John P. Nelson, M.D., University of Pittsburgh Medical School
2. Richard Bord, Penn State University
3. Third panelist to be determined

2:00 - 3:30 p.m.

Population Controllers and Anti Human Life Propagandizing

1. William Brennan, St. Louis University, “Semantic Warfare Against the Vulnerable: Dehumanizing Language and Its Life-Affirming Challenges”
2. Rev. Matthew Habiger, O.S.B., Human Life International, “Population Myths and Their Power: How Population Controllers Sell Their Programs”
3. Mary Shivanandan, John Paul II Institute for Studies on Marriage and Family,

“The New Participatory Research in the Social Sciences and Its Relevance to Family Planning Studies”

Catholic Historical Topics II

1. John F. Quinn, Salve Regina University, “The American Catholic Clergy’s Advocacy of Temperance, 1840-1918”
2. Christine Ellen Bohman-Cina, University of Wisconsin, Madison, “The First African-American Nun of Georgia: Mother Mathilda Beasley”
3. Edward King, Montreal Catholic School Commission, “Christopher Dawson and the Sixth Age of Christian Culture”

Ethical Issues in Immigration Control

1. Robert C. Rhodes, University of Texas-Permian Basin
2. Thomas Schaefer, University of Texas-Permian Basin

Family Questions: History, Social Sciences, and Literature

1. Donald J. D’Elia, SUNY College at New Paltz, “‘Shield of the Republic’: The Christian Family in the Life and Thought of the American Founders”
2. Les Kohut, John Paul II Family Communiversity, “Pre-Annulment: A Neglected Behavioral Frontier”
3. Mitchell Kalpakgian, Simpson College, “Home and Family in the Grimm Folk Tales”

Ethical and Social Science Questions Concerning Selected Human Life Issues

1. Rev. Stephen F. Torracco, Assumption College, “Veritatis Splendor and the Ethics of Organ Transplants”
2. Robert Hall, Niagara University, “The Moral Implications of Risk, especially in the Area of Surrogate Motherhood”
3. David Reardon, Elliot Institute for Social Sciences Research, “Substance Abuse Subsequent to Abortion”

Economic Justice, War, and Play:

Three Crucial Topics for Contemporary Man and Culture

1. George A. Kendall, freelance writer, “The Community Organization Movement as Exemplified in the Writings and Activities of the Late Saul Alinsky”
2. Claudio Cioffi-Revilla, University of Colorado, “Origins of War in Human History: Social Science and Theology Perspectives”

Schedule of Presentations for the Third Annual Society of Catholic Social Scientists' National Conference

October 27-28, 1995
at Christendom College, Front Royal, Virginia

Friday, October 27, 1995

1:00 - 2:30 p.m.

Themes from Catholic Social Teaching and the Social Encyclicals

1. Thomas A. Droleskey, C. W. Post College, SCSS 2nd Vice President-elect and Political Science Section Chairman, "The Connection Between Liturgical Reverence and Social Order"
2. Fr. Robert Batule, Diocese of Rockville Centre, SCSS National Chaplain, "The Place of Virtue in Catholic Social Teaching"

Moderator: John M. Grondelski, Seton Hall University

Family Rights

1. Mary Shivanandan, John Paul II Institute, "Nurturing as a Basic Right and Responsibility"
2. Frank Brown, DePaul University, "Catholic Families and the Education Tax"

Moderator: Frank Forlini, M.D., physician in private practice

Catholic Reflections on the Social Dimensions of Selected Great Literary Works

1. Patrick M. O'Neil, Broome Community College-SUNY, "Herman Melville's Catholic Masterpiece: Moby Dick, the Church, and the Image of the Anti-Christ"
2. John Whiton, University of Waterloo, "Teaching Goethe's Faust from a Thomistic Perspective"

Moderator: Mitchell Kalpakgian, Simpson College

"Computer Information Retrieval and the Use of On-Line Services"

1. Jeffrey Mirus, President, Trinity Communications and Director of Catholic Resource Network

Moderator: Donald J. D'Elia, SUNY-New Paltz, SCSS Board of Advisors
Co-Chairman

Catholic Social Teaching and the Economic Virtues

1. Andrew M. Yuengert, Pepperdine University, "Competition and Character"
2. Jean-Francois Orsini, St. Antonius Institute, SCSS Washington, D.C. Metropolitan Area Chapter President, "Catholic Principles of Management—Bulwark of Civilization"

Moderator: Philip T. Crotty, Northeastern University

“Roman Catholic Missionizing on the Frontier: Approaching Historical Truth”

1. Patrick Foley, Editor, Journal of Texas Catholic History and Culture, SCSS History Section Chairman, “The Sons of St. Vincent From the Mississippi River to the Rio Grand”
2. Felix D. Almaraz, Jr., University of Texas at San Antonio, “The Franciscan Missions From Mexico to Texas”
3. Commentator - Warren H. Carroll, President Emeritus, Christendom College
Moderator: Donald J. D’Elia, SUNY-New Paltz, SCSS Board of Advisors Co-Chairman

The Social Sciences and Catholicism

1. Ryan J. Barilleaux, Miami University (Ohio), “The Catholic Study of Political Institutions: The Utility and Limits of Secular Social Science”
Moderator: Joseph A. Varacalli, Nassau Community College-SUNY, SCSS Executive Secretary

Historical Developments in Pro-Life and Related Areas in the United States

1. Keith Cassidy, University of Guelph, “The Right-to-Life Movement and Electoral Politics, 1972-1992”
2. E. Michael Jones, Editor, Fidelity and Culture Wars, “Hollywood’s Guilty Secret: How Sex Became Horror, How the Fetus Became a Monster”
Moderator: Frank Forlini, physician in private practice

4:45 - 6:00 p.m. - Disciplinary Section Meetings (members interested in joining one of the disciplinary sections below are invited to attend these meetings)

1. Economics and Business Section - organizational meeting - meeting chaired by Philip T. Crotty, Northeastern University
2. History Section - organizational meeting - meeting chaired by Patrick Foley, Editor, Journal of Texas Catholic History and Culture, Section Chairman
3. Political Science Section - meeting chaired by Thomas A. Droleskey, Section Chairman
4. Psychology/Psychiatry/Mental Health Section - meeting chaired by John P. Nelson, M.D., Section Chairman

Saturday, October 28, 1995

8:10 - 9:40 a.m.

Psychology, Psychiatry, and Catholicism

1. George E. Maloof, M.D., psychiatrist in private practice, “C. G. Jung: The Blessed Virgin Mary’s Lost Child”
2. Luz Gabriel, M. D., psychiatrist in private practice, SCSS Tri-State Chapter Vice President, “The Family, Psychiatry, and Roman Catholicism”
Moderator: Frank Forlini, M.D., physician in private practice

Great Catholic Thinkers

1. Mitchell Kalpakgian, Simpson College, “Liberal Education and the Common Good in Newman’s The Idea of the University”
2. John M. Grondelski, Seton Hall University, “The Young John Paul II (Karol Wojtyla) on Social Ethics”

Moderator: Fr. Robert Batule, Diocese of Rockville Centre

“Beyond Secularism: Catholic Higher Education in America”

1. Timothy T. O’Donnell, President, Christendom College, “Ex Corde Ecclesia and Catholic Academia”
2. Kenneth D. Whitehead, Former Deputy U.S. Secretary of Education, “Ex Corde Ecclesia and Governmental Obstacles”
3. Christine Weinert, Cardinal Newman Society, “Ex Corde Ecclesia and Student Culture”

Moderator: Patrick J. Reilly, President, Cardinal Newman Society

10:00 - 11:30 a.m.

Catholic Social Teaching and the Discipline of Economics: Critique, Historical Perspective, and the Basis for Rebuilding the Discipline

1. Andrew M. Yuegert, Pepperdine University, “Directing Theological Fire: Catholic Social Teaching and Economics”
2. Frank Brown, DePaul University, “Catholic Social Thought and the Economic Science”

Moderator: Philip T. Crotty, Northeastern University

The Third Orders in the Third Millennium

1. Donald J. D’Elia, SUNY-New Paltz, SCSS Board of Advisors Co-Chairman, “The Franciscan Third Order”
2. Jean Francois Orsini, St. Antoninus Institute, SCSS Washington, D.C. Metropolitan Chapter President, “The Dominican Third Order”
3. Carmine Gorga, President, Polis-tics, Inc., SCSS Boston Metropolitan Chapter Chairman, “The Carmelite Third Order”

Moderator: Fr. Robert Batule, SCSS National Chaplain

Reflections on Human Fellowship and Conflict

1. Eduardo J. Echeverria, Molloy College, ““As much as possible, to the utmost of your ability, be at peace with all men”: Jacques Maritain’s Reflections on Romans 12:18 and the Problem of Truth and Human Fellowship”
2. Claudio Cioffi-Revilla, University of Colorado, “The Origins of War in Human History and Cultures”

Moderator: John M. Grondelski, Seton Hall University

2:00 - 3:30 p.m.

“The Challenge of Organizing and Maintaining Private K-12 Catholic Schools”

1. Thomas Foster, University of Kansas, St. Joseph’s Academy (Tecumseh, Kansas)
2. Alan Hicks, University of Kansas, St. Gregory’s Academy (Moscow, Pennsylvania)

Moderator: Donald J. D’Elia, SUNY-New Paltz, SCSS Board of Advisors Co-Chairman

The History of the American Indians and the Catholic Church

1. Anthony Mulloy, University of Arkansas, “Joseph Chiwatenha: The First Martyr of the Huron Church”
2. Marian Therese Horvat, University of Kansas, “Indian Women: Converted not Exploited”

Moderator: Donald J. D’Elia, SUNY-New Paltz, SCSS Board of Advisors Co-Chairman

Pro-Life Themes

1. William Brennan, St. Louis University, “The Language of the Culture of Death: When Word Games Take Lives”
2. Lawrence F. Roberge, research scientist, “Abortifacient Vaccines: Technological Update, Hazards, and Pro-Life Appraisal”

Moderator: Frank Forlini, M.D., physician in private practice

4:00 - 5:30 p.m.

Catholic Historical Themes

1. Warren H. Carroll, President Emeritus, Christendom College, “The Exclusion of the Supernatural in Academic Historical Writing Today: An Analysis and Critique”
2. John Quinn, Salve Regina University, “‘The Workers Are Few’: Priestly Vocations in America Since 1789”

Moderator: Donald J. D’Elia, SUNY-New Paltz, SCSS Board of Advisors Co-Chairman

Catholic Social Teaching and Selected Topics in Present-Day Business and Management

1. Carmine Gorga, President, Polis-tics, Inc., SCSS Boston Metropolitan Area Chapter Chairman, “Fisheries Renewal: A Renewal of the Soul of Business”
2. Philip T. Crotty, Northeastern University, “The Core Contingent Work Force: Some Further Considerations of Corporate Employment Practices in Light of the Social Encyclicals”

Moderator: Andrew M. Yuengert, Pepperdine University

Theological and Social Science Questions in the Pro Life/Pro-Family Realm

1. Patrick M. O’Neil, Broome Community College-SUNY, “John T. Noonan,

- Jr. on the Development of Christian Moral Doctrine”
2. Ryan J. Barilleaux, Miami University (Ohio), “Does Evangelium Vitae Weave a Seamless Garment”?
 3. John J. Schrems, Villanova University, “Note on Political Science and the Abortion Issue”
- Moderator: John M. Grondelski, Seton Hall University