

Business & Professional Ethics Journal

Contents

Vol. 9, Nos. 3 & 4

Justice and the Health Care "Industry"

- Introduction -- Robert J. Baum* 3
- The Ethics of Health Care as a Business 7
Patricia H. Werhane
- Medicine and Business: An Unhealthy Mix? 21
Dan W. Brock
- Advocacy of Just Health Policies as Professional Duty:
Cultural Biases and Ethical Responsibilities 41
Lee A. Crandall
- The Enforcement of Moral Obligations to Potential
Fetuses: Johnson Controls vs. the UAW 55
Ronald F. White
- Health Care as a Business: The Ethic of Hippocrates
Versus the Ethic of Managed Care 69
Mark H. Waymack
- The Physician-Societal Relationship 79
Gordon L. Crelinsten
- Heads, Feds, and Beds: Ethical Dilemmas in the Delivery of Medical Care 83
Arthur R. Williams

Consumer Sovereignty vs. Informed Consent: Saying No to Requests to "Do Everything" for Dying Patients	95
Leonard J. Weber
Market Mechanisms and Principles of Justice	103
Erich H. Loewy
Reforming Britain's National Health Service	121
Ross Kessel
Setting Floating Limits: Functional Status Care Categories as National Policy	133
David C. Thomasma
A Proposal for Health Care: Revolution Not Reform	147
Robert J. Barnet
Chronic Illness and the Temporal Structure of Human Life	161
John Douard
Health Policy Analysis as Ideology and as Utopian Rhetoric	173
Irwin Miller
Community Responsibility and the Development of Oregon's Health Care Priorities	183
Michael J. Garland and Romana Hasnain
The Oregon Medicaid Experiment: Is It Just Enough?	201
Leonard M. Fleck
Notes on Contributors	219