

Business & Professional Ethics Journal

Contents

Vol. 9, Nos. 1 & 2

Papers from the 1990 Conference on Moral Problems in the Professions

Guest Editors: Robert Audi and Stephen E. Kalish

Introduction	3
The Philosopher as Insider and Outsider: How to Advise, Compromise, and Criticize Frances Myrna Kamm	7
Ethical Considerations for the Forensic Engineer Serving as an Expert Witness Kenneth L. Carper	21
The Professional's Dilemma: Choosing Between Service and Success Banks McDowell	35
Ethics and News Peter Machamer and Barbara Boylan	53
Truth, Neutrality, and Conflict of Interest Judith Lichtenberg	65
Choosing Social Responsibility Over Law: The Soldier of Fortune Classified Advertising Cases	79

Waiting for a New St. Benedict: Alasdair MacIntyre & the Theory and Practice of Journalism	97
Edmund B. Lambeth
Taking Positional Conflicts of Interest Seriously	109
John S. Dzienkowski
Innocents and Innocence: Moral Puzzles of Professional Status and Culpable Conduct	129
John R. Snowden
Ethics and Advocacy in Forecasting for Public Policy	141
Martin Wachs
Professional Education of African Americans: A Challenge to Ethical Thinking	159
William M. Harris, Sr.
Role Differentiation Problems in Professional Ethics: The "Competitive" and "Cooperative" Models for Societal Institutions	171
Paul T. Wangerin
Professional Ethics and Accounting Education: A Critique of the 8-Step Method	181
Mary Beth Armstrong
Child Development and Research Ethics: A Changing Calculus of Concerns	193
Ross A. Thompson
Informing Clients About Limits to Confidentiality	207
Lee A. Pizzimenti
Notes on Contributors	223