

THE HARVARD REVIEW OF PHILOSOPHY

VOLUME XII | SPRING 2004

Bernard Williams's
gives his last interview.
Page 80

John Searle discusses his approach to philosophy
Page 92

PHILOSOPHY OF MIND

- The Problem of Perception 4
By John Foster
- In Defense of the Cognitivist Theory of Perception 19
By D.M. Armstrong
- Response to Armstrong 27
By John Foster
- A Green Thought in a Green Shade 29
By C.L. Hardin

PHILOSOPHY OF MATHEMATICS

- Structuralism and the Independence of Mathematics 39
By Michael D. Resnik

ETHICS

- Parfit on What's Wrong 52
By Thomas W. Pogge

PHILOSOPHY OF RELIGION

- An Irrealist Theory of Self 60
By Jonardon Ganeri

INTERVIEWS

- A Mistrustful Animal 80
An interview with Bernard Williams
- Toward A Unified Theory of Reality 92
An interview with John Searle

Credits: The cover picture was provided by the M.C. Escher Foundation. The photographs of Bernard Williams were provided by Alex Voorhoeve. The photographs of John Searle were provided by John Searle.