

Contents

“The Angry Jew has Gotten His Revenge”: Hannah Arendt on Revenge and Reconciliation	1
Roger Berkowitz
A Defense of Hannah Arendt’s “Reflections on Little Rock”	21
Daniel Cole
Hannah Arendt and the War in Iraq	41
Karin Fry
Hannah Arendt’s “Histories”: A Contextual Perspective	53
Liisi Keedus
When Are We When We Think? Arendt’s Temporal Interpretation of Thinking and Thoughtlessness	71
Heath Massey
The Amnesia of the Modern: Arendt on the Role of Memory in the Constitution of the Political	91
Irene McMullin
Genocide and Sexual Atrocities: Hannah Arendt’s Eichmann in Jerusalem and Karadžić in New York	117
Natalie Nenadic
Between Community and Humanity: Arendt, Judgment, and Responsibility to the Global Poor	145
Serena Parekh
Impossible Mourning: Sophocles Reversed	165
Fanny Söderbäck

Arendt and the American Pragmatists: Her Debate with Dewey and Some American Strains in Her Thought

Robin Weiss

183