

JOSEPH GRANGE

141 Deconstruction and the Philosophy of Culture

JOSEPH GRANGE is Professor of Philosophy at the University of Southern Maine, Portland, ME 04103. Among his recent publications are "Lacan's Other and the Factums of Plato's Soul" (in The Question of the Other, SUNY Press, 1989) and "Normative Thinking" (in The Examination of the Intellect, USM Press, 1987).

GREGORY REICHBERG

152 Imaginative Generalization as Epogoge

GREGORY REICHBERG studied in France at the Centre Indépendant de Recherche Philosophique and received a Master's degree from the Université de Toulouse. He is now a doctoral candidate at Emory University, Atlanta, GA 30305.

FATIMA PINAR GOKTAN CANEVI

163 The Plight of Cosmology

FATIMA PINAR GOKTAN CANEVI is Associate Professor of Philosophy at Middle East Technical University, Ankara 06531, Turkey. Her "Do We Need the 'Actual Entities'?" was published in the proceedings of the First International Whitehead Symposium, Whitehead and the Idea of Process.

THOMAS A. NAIRN

170 Hartshorne and Utilitarianism: A Response to Moskop

THOMAS A. NAIRN is Associate Professor of Christian Ethics at Catholic Theological Union, 5401 S. Cornell, Chicago, IL 60615. He is currently working on a book that is tentatively entitled Appreciated By God: The Ethics of Charles Hartshorne.

CHRISTOPH WASSERMANN

181 The Relevance of An Introduction to Mathematics to Whitehead's Philosophy

CHRISTOPH WASSERMANN (Breslauerstr. 7, 7858 Weil am Rhein, West Germany) is Research Associate at the Faculty of Theology of the University of Geneva. He is working to extend Whitehead's theories to quantum theory, especially by coordinating the work of C. F. von Weiszäcker with Whitehead.

J. P. MORELAND

193 An Enduring Self: The Achilles' Heel of Process Philosophy

J. P. MORELAND is Associate Professor of Philosophy at Liberty University, Lynchburg, VA 24506. He is the author of Universals, Qualities, and Quality-Instances (University Press of America, 1985) and Scaling the Secular City (Baker, 1987).

CRITICAL STUDIES AND REVIEWS

JAMES A. KELLER

200 David Basinger, Divine Power in Process Theism: A Philosophical Critique

206 Abstracts

208 Announcements