Editors’ Introduction
Zachary Hoskins, Joan Woolfrey, and Gregory Hoskins

PART I: PRESIDENT’S ADDRESSES
Solidarity as Sanctuary
Sally J. Scholz

PART II: KEYNOTE ADDRESSES
Helping the Homeless of Our State System: The Case of Refugees
Gillian Brock
Crimmigration and the Ethics of Migration
José Jorge Mendoza

PART III: HOME: SACRANTUARY, SHELTER, AND JUSTICE
At Home in a Psychiatric Hospital
Abigail Gosselin
Rectificatory Justice and the Kānaka Maoli of Hawai‘i
Rodney C. Roberts
Ethical Home: Making, Remaking, and Unmaking Moral Community
Elizabeth Lanphier
Forced Separation and the Wrong of Deportation
Thomas Carnes

PART IV: RACISM AND COLORISM
Clear as Mud: Colorism’s Independence from Racism as a System of Discrimination
Gisela Reyes
Genes are the New Black: Racism and ‘Roots’ in the Age of 23andMe
William H. Harwood ........................................................................................................ 153

The Spectre of Nat Turner: A Philosophical Analysis of the Legitimacy of Resistance Violence
Margaret Betz ............................................................................................................. 179

PART V: NASSP BOOK AWARD
RAHEL JAEGGI, CRITIQUES OF FORMS OF LIFE
Recovering the Concept of “Forms of Life”
for Social Philosophy and Critical Theory
Seth Mayer .................................................................................................................. 197

Comments on Rahel Jaeggi, Critique of Forms of Life
Karen Adkins .............................................................................................................. 201

A Comment on Rahel Jaeggi’s Critique of Forms of Life
Erik A. Anderson ......................................................................................................... 205

Reflexivity in Jaeggi’s Critique of Forms of Life
Paul B. Thompson ....................................................................................................... 211

Reply to the Comments
Rahel Jaeggi ................................................................................................................ 223

Notes on Contributors ............................................................................................... 231