

CONTENTS

Preface vii

PART I

SOME ROOTS AND SOME FRUITS OF THE LIBERALISM DEBATE

1. Liberalism, Bosanquet, and the Theory of the State 3
William Sweet
2. The Use and Abuse of Ancient Political Theory in Contemporary Social Theories 35
John M. Carvalho
3. Political Liberty and Constitutional Government:
Separation of Powers Revisited 49
Vukan Kuic
4. Varieties of Liberalism and "Traditional Values" 67
Robert N. Van Wyk
5. Social Conflicts, Moral Dilemmas, and Priority Principles 89
Shyli Karin-Frank
6. Liberal Purposes and Community 105
David A. Duquette

PART II

ENLIGHTENED ENVIRONMENTALISM

7. Violence Against Nature 121
James P. Sterba
8. Public Goods, Private Goods, and Environmental Problems 133
Baylor L. Johnson
9. Should "Real" Environmentalists Be Neo-Luddites 145
William Aiken

PART III
OPPRESSION, LIBERATION, AND EMPOWERMENT

- | | |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| 10. Discourse of Liberation and Discourses of Transformation
C. Colwell | 159 |
| 11. Power and Empowerment:
Reflections on Thomas Wartenberg's
The Forms of Power and the Feminist Movement
William L. McBride | 171 |
| 12. Feminine and Feminist Ethics
Rosemarie Tong | 183 |
| 13. Pornography and Censorship
David V. Ward | 207 |
| 14. Pornography: Critics and Valuers
James Gould | 221 |
| 15. The Problem to be Addressed and the Approach Suggested
Scott Landers | 229 |
| 16. Democratic Socialism, the Catholic Bishops, and Human Rights
Joseph Betz | 251 |
| 17. Power, Relationship, and Social Change:
A Presupposition and Some Theses
Leo J. Penta | 267 |
| 18. Ivory Towers Should Not a Prison Make
Tom Regan | 281 |