Special Issue:
Teaching in a Time of Crisis

Maralee Harrell
Introduction to the Special Issue: Teaching in a Time of Crisis .......... v

Articles

Sasha L. Biro
Reading in a Time of Crisis: Using Perusall to Facilitate Close Reading and Active Discussion in the Remote Philosophy Classroom .... 241

Nathan Eric Dickman
Physical Distance, Ethical Proximity: Levinasian Dialogue as Pandemic Pedagogy in Faceless (Masked or Online) Classrooms ........................................................ 255

Dawei Pan
Embracing e-Philosophy: How Teaching Online Can Invigorate Chinese Students and Revivify Philosophical Education ...................... 281

Amy Reed-Sandoval
Philosophy for Children in a Pandemic: Rethinking the “Community” of Inquiry .................................................. 297

Vicky Roupa
Closing the Feedback Loop: Strategies for Increasing Student Engagement With Remotely Delivered Feedback .... 319

Boaz Faraday Schuman
What Does Success in Online Teaching Look Like? ........................ 339

Book Reviews

Chad Brockman
Hatred: Understanding Our Most Dangerous Emotion, by Berit Brogaard .......................................................... 369

Benjamin L. Curtis
Super Courses: The Future of Teaching and Learning, by Ken Bain ..... 372

Robert Earle
Living with Animals: Rights, Responsibilities and Respect, by Erin McKenna ................................................................. 375
Tom Godfrey

When All Else Fails: The Ethics of Resistance to State Injustice, by Jason Brennan ................................................................. 378

Joe Higgins

Phenomenology: A Contemporary Introduction, by Walter Hopp .......... 382

Iraklis Ioannidis

Coronavirus, Psychoanalysis, and Philosophy:
Conversations on Pandemics, Politics and Society,
ed. Fernando Castrillón and Thomas Marchevsky .......................... 385

Anton Killin

Philosophy of Western Music: A Contemporary Introduction,
by Andrew Kania ......................................................................... 389

Matt LaVine

The Carnap Book, by Graham Leach-Krouse ................................. 393

Kiasha Naidoo

Pandemic! COVID-19 Shakes the World, by Slavoj Žižek ............. 399

Ian A. Smith

A Philosopher Goes to the Doctor:
A Critical Look at Philosophical Assumptions in Medicine,
by Dien Ho .................................................................................. 403