

Thought

---

FORDHAM UNIVERSITY QUARTERLY

---

GENDER AND THE MORAL ORDER IN MEDIEVAL SOCIETY

Introduction . . . . .	203
From Women to Woman: New Thinking about Gender, c. 1140 . . . . . Susan Mosher Stuard	208
Baldus of Perugia on Female and Male: The Case of Allumella . . . . . Jacques Anthony Pluss	220
Hildegard of Bingen's Philosophy of Sex Identity . . . . . Prudence Allen, R.S.M.	231
Mulier et Monialis : The Medieval Nun's Self-Image . . . . . Penelope D. Johnson	242
"And Most of All for Inordinate Love": Desire and Denial in The Book of Margery Kempe . . . . . Nancy Partner	254
The Holy Kinship: The Ascendancy of Matriliny in Sacred Genealogy of the Fifteenth Century . . . . . Pamela Sheingorn	268
The Death of Blanche and the Life of the Moral Order . . . . . Elaine Tuttle Hansen	287
Engendering Criticism . . . . . Arlyn Diamond	298

---

THOUGHT, Fordham University Quarterly, published in March, June, September, and December, by Fordham University Press. Editorial, advertising, publication, and subscription offices: Fordham University Press, Bronx, New York 10458. September 1989, Vol. LXIV, No. 254.

Single copy, $7.50; yearly, $17.50 (individuals), $25.00 (institutions); foreign, add $3.50 for postage. Second class postage paid at Bronx, NY and at office of additional entry at Lancaster, PA. THOUGHT, Reg. U.S. Pat. Off. © Copyright by Fordham University, 1989.