

Thought

FORDHAM UNIVERSITY QUARTERLY

Orwell and Chesterton	John P. Rossi	313
Technologized Parenthood and the Attenuation of Motherhood and Fatherhood	Donald DeMarco	327
Academic Excellence: Cliché or Humanizing Vision?	Merold Westphal	348
Virginia Woolf: The Biographer as Medium	Catherine N. Parke	358
Autobiography as Philosophical Argument: Socrates, Descartes, and Collingwood	Paul Trainor	378
The Neo-Distributism of Friedrich A. Hayek and Wilhelm Röpke	Jay P. Corrin	397
The Fluid Word: Word Processing and Its Mental Habits	Phil Mullins	413
Supreme Court Roundup: 1986 Term . . .	Richard J. Regan, S.J.	429
Book Reviews		442

THOUGHT, Fordham University Quarterly, published in March, June, September, and December, by Fordham University Press. Editorial, advertising, publication, and subscription offices: Fordham University Press, Bronx, New York 10458. December 1988, Vol. LXIII, No. 251.

Single copy, $7.50; yearly, $17.50 (individuals), $25.00 (institutions); foreign, add $3.50 for postage. Second class postage paid at Bronx, NY and at office of additional entry at Lancaster, PA. THOUGHT, Reg. U.S. Pat. Off. © Copyright by Fordham University, 1988.