

American Association of Philosophy Teachers Studies in Pedagogy

Practices in Pedagogy

Contents

Introduction .....	1
Reimagining Current Practices
Monique Whitaker
Updating Syllabi, Reimagining Assignments, and Embracing Error: Strategies for Retaining Marginalized Students in Philosophy .....	3
Christina Hendricks
Teaching and Learning Philosophy in the Open .....	17
Frances Bottenberg
Power-sharing in the Philosophy Classroom: Prospects and Pitfalls...	33
Paul Green
How to Motivate Students: A Primer for Learner-Centered Teachers...	47
Kimberly Van Orman
Teaching Philosophy with Team-Based Learning.....	61
Pedagogy Meets Philosophy
Christine Wieseler
Thinking Critically about Disability in Biomedical Ethics Courses...	82
J. Alden Stout and Chris Weigel
Psychological Influences on Philosophical Questions: Implications for Pedagogy .....	98
Kristin Schaupp
Trading in Values: Disagreement and Rationality in Teaching.....	111
Leslie Miller
Philosophical Practice in the Classroom, or, How I Kill Zombies for a Living.....	129

Advice for the Classroom

Paul G. Neiman and Linda V. Neiman

Engaging Students in Philosophy Texts ..... 157

Brett Gaul

Developing Hands-On Learning Activities for Philosophy Courses... 169

Andrew M. Winters

Some Benefits of Getting It Wrong:
Guided Unsuccessful Retrievals and Long-Term Understanding..... 179

Theodore Bach

Going Live:
On the Value of a Newspaper-Centered Philosophy Seminar..... 191

Daryl Close

Teaching the PARC System of Natural Deduction..... 201

Jessey Wright

Course Participation: Defining and Evaluating Student Participation... 219

Notes on Contributors ..... 233