

Contents

Editor's Preface	v
------------------	---

Presidential Address

Christian Social Ethics as a Vocation Max L. Stackhouse	3
---	---

Selected Papers

Liberalism, Communitarianism, and the Bishop's Pastoral Letter on the Economy David Hollenbach, S. J.	19
Replies to David Hollenbach Gregory Baum	41
Ruth Smith	47
Robert Benne	51
Recent Mainline Protestant Statements on Economic Justice Paul F. Camenisch	55
Reformation Initiatives for Social Welfare: Luther's Influence at Leisnig Carter Lindberg	79
Renegotiating the Burdens of Justice in Public Education James F. Smurl	101

Liberative History and Liberation Ethics: A Case Study of American Methodism and Popular Struggle Robert H. Craig	134
Hitting a Straight Lick with a Crooked Stick: The Womanist Dilemma in the Development of a Black Liberation Ethic Katie G. Cannon	165
Sins of Malice in the Moral Psychology of Thomas Aquinas John Langan, S. J.	179

Professional Resources

Introduction Christine Gudorf	201
Experiential Teaching Designs for Discerning and Addressing Fears about Homosexuality Boyd Gibson	203
Additional Resources for Experiential Teaching Randi Warne	219
Christine Gudorf	222
James Nelson	224
Marvin L. Krier Mich	226
Elly Haney	227
Homophobia/Heterosexism and Lesbian/Gay Experience: An Annotated Bibliography Robert W. Blaney	229
Contributors	255