

UNIVERSALISTIC IDEAS IN PHILOSOPHY, MULTIPLE CIVILIZATIONS AND SCIENTIFIC APPLICATIONS

Editorial — This volume follows up on the universalistic ideas in philosophy and civilization science, and is augmented by some universalistic applications of natural and information sciences	5
Katarzyna Chałasińska-Macukow — Inaugural Address by Her Magnificence Rector of the University of Warsaw	9
I. NASCENT POLISH PANTHEON OF EXPLORERS AND INVENTORS
Marek Krawczyk — Maria Skłodowska-Curie and the Importance of Her Discoveries for Medicine	15
Andrew Targowski — Paul (Paweł) Baran (1926–2011). Inventor of the Internet, Who Has Made Humanity Communicate	47
II. LESZEK KOŁAKOWSKI—UNIVERSALISTIC THINKER?
Józef L. Krakowiak — Leszek Kołakowski between Activist Universalism and Contemplative Mysticism	61
Wojciech Jerzy Bober — Leszek Kołakowski as Moralizer and Moral Philosopher	85
III. STUDIES OF CIVILIZATIONS
Eugeniusz Górski — Democratic Spain and the Ibero-American Community of Nations	93
Krzysztof Gawlikowski — A New Period of the Mutual Rapprochement of the Western and Chinese Civilizations: Towards a Common Appreciation of Harmony and Co-operation	115