

---

INQUIRY

CRITICAL THINKING ACROSS THE DISCIPLINES

Special Issue:

Critical Thinking and Disability in Higher Education

Amy L. Skinner, Guest Editor

Contents

Amy L. Skinner	Introduction to the Special Issue on Critical Thinking and Disability in Higher Education.....	5
Amy L. Skinner, Lee Ann R. Rawlins, and Cynthia Hughes	A Preliminary Investigation Comparing Academic Locus of Control and Perceived Quality of Academic Life across College Students with and without Disabilities .....	7
Donna Gilbertson, Sherrie Mecham, Kara Mickelson, and Seth Wilhelmsen	Training and Generalization of Study Skills for College Students with Disabilities.....	15
Juliann Mathis and Amy L. Skinner	Enhancing Pre-Service Students' Learning and Thinking about Bipolar Disorder Via Lecturer Descriptions of Living with Mental Illness .....	27
Katherine H. Greenberg	Thinking about Critical Thinking: Disabilities and Learner-Centered Instructional Design from the Perspective of Mediated Learning Experience Theory.....	37
Book Review	For Goodness Sake: Religious Schools and Education for Democratic Citizenry by Walter Feinberg, reviewed by Graham McDonough.....	45
Book Review	Qu'est-ce qu'un homme? Dialogue de Leo, Chien sagace, et de son Philosophe, Dessins de Lionel Koechlin. [What is a man? A dialogue between Leo the wise dog and his philosopher. Drawings by Lionel Koechin.] by Cecile Robelin and Jean Robelin, reviewed by David Kennedy.....	51