The National Catholic Bioethics Quarterly
Volume 15 • Number 4 • Winter 2015

In This Issue

Washington Insider
William L. Saunders

Essays

Immune to Life
The Unethical Nature of Antifertility Vaccines
Andrew S. Kubick

Maritain’s Theory of Natural Law
Denís A. Scrandís

Bioethics in Laudato sí’
The Ecological Law as a Moral Principle
Rev. Nicanor Pier Giorgio Austriaco, OP

Catholic Bioethics in the Anthropocene
Integrating Ecology, Religion, and Human Health
Cory Andrew Labrecque

Articles

Contra Craniotomy
A Defense of William E. May’s Original Position
Austín J. Holgard

Thinking about Technology from a Catholic Moral Perspective
A Critical Consideration of Ten Models
Mark S. Latkovic

The Magisterial Liceity of Embryo Transfer
A Response to Charles Robertson
Elizabeth Bothamley Rex
Verbatim

Address to the Italian Medical Biological Union “San Luca” 725
November 12, 1944
Pope Pius XII

Notes & Abstracts

Science  David A. Prentice  737
Medicine  David J. Ramsey, MD  751
Philosophy and Theology  Christopher Kaczor  769

Book Reviews

Truly Human Enhancement:  781
A Philosophical Defense of Limits
By Nicholas Agar
Reviewed by Jason T. Eberl

Manual of Catholic Medical Ethics:  784
Responsible Healthcare from a Catholic Perspective
Edited by W.J. Eijk, L.M. Hendriks,
J.A. Raymakers, and John I. Fleming
Reviewed by Rev. Ezra Sullivan, OP

Medicine and Religion: A Historical Introduction  788
By Gary B. Ferngren
Reviewed by Brian Welter

Living the Good Life: A Beginner’s Thomistic Ethics  791
By Steven J. Jensen
Reviewed by Brian Welter

Books Received  793

Volume 15 index  795