

Contents

Editor's Introduction	iv
Guest Editor's Introduction: Caribbean Women Reconfigure National Identities FELIX GERMAIN	v
ESSAYS
É Kurasoleña Nobo : Expressions of the Curaçaoan Woman in the Paintings of Jean Girigori, Minerva Lauffer, and Viviana Cornet FLORENCIA V. CORNET	99
A Puerto Rican Cinema Produced by a Foreign Lens: Female Roles in Maruja and El otro camino CONSUELO MARTÍNEZ-REYES	130
"You Need to Press On": Lillie Johnson as a Pragmatic Public Intellectual KAREN FLYNN	148
Mapping the Echo Chamber: Edwidge Danticat and the Thematic Trilogy of Birth, Separation, and Death NADÉGE T. CLITANDRE	170
Rude Girl, Big Woman: Power and Play in Representations of Caribbean Women LIA T. BASCOMB	191
BOOK NOOK: REVIEWS
Edwidge Danticat, Claire of the Sea Light (New York: Alfred A. Knopf, 2013), 256 pp. CHRISTINE GERMAIN	214
Contributors	216

Editor's Introduction

CARIBBEAN WOMEN ACROSS THE AMERICAS are the focus of the current issue of Palimpsest. Literary representations, celluloid images, visual artists, popular culture, and organic intellectuals are presented in the pages therein, demonstrating the breadth of scholarship by up and coming scholars and researchers situated in the United States and Canadian academics.