Articles

- The Functions of Authority
  Fr. Julio Meinvielle, Ph.D., S.T.D.
  I. Erroneous Doctrines ........................................... 6
  II. Catholic Doctrine ............................................. 7
  III. The State and the Family ................................. 18
  IV. The State in Education and Culture .................. 19
  V. The State and the Economy ................................. 25
  VI. The State and the International Community ....... 29
  VII. The State and the Church ................................. 33
  VIII. Maritain’s “Fraternal City” .......................... 37

- Was Mary Truly Full of Grace, or Could She Grow in Grace?
  Sr. María de la Caridad Asensio, SSVM, STL
  I. What Do We Understand by Grace? ......................... 45
  II. Necessity of Grace ........................................... 48
  III. Grace in Jesus and Mary .................................. 51
  IV. Mary’s Fullness of Grace .................................. 53
  V. Mary’s Growth in Grace ................................... 57
  Conclusion ......................................................... 62

- Brief Essay on the Nature and Method of Epistemology
  Fr. Andres Ayala, IVE, Ph.D.
  Appendix: The Four Instances of Scientific Reasoning  . 75

- The Principle of Causality and the Notion of Participation: Deepening into Fabro’s Defense of this Principle
  Fr. Andres Ayala, IVE, Ph.D.
  I. The Critical Justification of the Principle of Causality and Other Related Issues ........... 87
  II. Critical Defense of the Principle of Causality ........ 89
  III. The Notion of “being which is not because of itself” in Fabro and in St. Thomas ....... 92
  Conclusion ......................................................... 98
Table of Contents

❖ Sexual and Medical Ethics Following St. Thomas Aquinas
   Fr. Joseph LoJacono, IVE 101
   I. Aquinas and the Development of Marriage within Anthropology .......................... 115
   II. Aquinas’ Explanation of Natural Law ......................................................... 117
   III. Aquinas’ Anthropology in the History of Salvation .......................... 119
   IV. Aquinas’ Anthropology of the Venereal Act ........................................ 121
   V. Marriage in Natural Law ......................................................................... 124
   VI. Aquinas’ Sacramental Sense of Marriage ........................................... 126
   Conclusion .................................................................................................... 127

❖ The Profoundly Human Notion of Participation
   Fr. Marcelo Navarro, IVE, Ph.D. 133
   Introduction .................................................................................................... 135
   I. The Thomistic Texts in their Historical and Doctrinal Contexts ........... 140
   II. Causality and Participation in Thomism .............................................. 149

❖ St. Thomas and Mary’s Participation in the Grace of Christ
   Fr. Cornelio Fabro, CSS, Ph.D., S.T.D. 159
   I. The significance of the problem ............................................................. 162
   II. The original fontal plenitude of grace in Christ as Man-God and Savior .................................................. 165
   III. The fontal plenitude derived from the grace of Christ in the Mother of God .................................................. 168
   IV. The transcendental surplus of grace in Mary .................................. 178
   V. The participation of grace in Christ and Mary .................................. 187

Book Reviews

— Jon Kirwan; The Thomistic Response to the Nouvelle Théologie: Concerning the Truth of Dogma and the Nature of Theology ................................. 201