Throughout the Twentieth Century international or world congresses of philosophy have been convened on average every five years. Until Paris 1937, they were organized by a Permanent Committee for International Philosophy Congresses. Since 1948, they have been sponsored by the International Federation of Philosophical Societies (FISP). The present Congress in Boston is the last of the century.

The Congress theme, Paideia: Philosophy Educating Humanity, is a topic that can be addressed creatively by the philosophical traditions of the great world civilizations. The organizers are committed to a congress with the highest standards of philosophic thought, emphasizing the representation and interchange of ideas from the wide range of the world's philosophical traditions and movements.

AMERICAN ORGANIZERS

The American Organizing Committee, Inc. is the executive arm of the Congress and represents the American philosophical associations and societies in the United States that are members of FISP. The AOC Steering Committee consists of representatives from the and American societies of FISP together with the representatives from institutional sponsors in the Greater Boston Area:

TWENTIETH WORLD CONGRESS OF PHILOSOPHY

PERSONAL GREETINGS FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF THE AMERICAN ORGANIZING COMMITTEE, INC.

On behalf of the American Organizing Committee, Inc., I want to extend to all Congress participants a warm welcome and a productive week in Boston. We hope that this will be a meaningful event for you.

Preparations for the Twentieth World Congress began nearly ten years ago. Following the acceptance of the Boston proposal tendered to FISP following the Moscow Congress in 1993, we incorporated under the bylaws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. Our work has been particularly intense since 1995, and apart from the dedicated services of our staff, the organization of this event would have been impossible.

Special recognition needs to be given to Mr. Bud Heckman, who served as Project Administrator during the initial stages of this project from 1996-1997, and Dr. Kevin Stoehr who has served in this role since the beginning of 1998. Bud and Kevin have been responsible for the day-to-day operations of the AOC, Inc., and they have selflessly provided service above and beyond what one can reasonably expect. Space management, scheduling, and the design of the final program has been the province of Dr. Mark Gedney. Mark has confronted the daunting task of organizing over 2,500 presentations with vigor and enthusiasm. Working with our talented Webmaster, Tom Stone, Bud, Kevin, and Mark have pioneered the use of high technology in the service of a Congress of this magnitude, and their involvement with the web will continue as we begin to post the contributed papers. Whatever measure of gratitude Congress participants may wish to express is appropriately directed to these individuals and to the rest of our staff: Ms. Georgia Maheras, Mr. Timothy Freiermuth, Mr. Amos Yong, and Mr. Stephen Dawson.

While I cannot here begin to thank all who have given of themselves so generously in the organization of this event, a special word of appreciation must be directed to the Philosophy Documentation Center, to the American Philosophical Association, and to our co-sponsoring institutions, Boston College, Brown University, Suffolk University, Wellesley College, and the University of Massachusetts. The principal sponsoring institution, of course, has been Boston University. Apart from the constant support and encouragement of Chancellor John Silber, President Jon Westling, and Provost Dennis Berkey, the organization of the Twentieth World Congress of Philosophy would have been impossible.

Please look at the Acknowledgements section of your program for a complete list of those who have played significant roles in bringing the Boston Congress to fruition. My apologies to anyone who might have been overlooked in the listings.

With all best wishes,

Professor Alan M. Olson

TWENTIETH WORLD CONGRESS OF PHILOSOPHY

Dear Colleagues:

It is an honor and pleasure to welcome you to the Twentieth World Congress of Philosophy with this Program Book. Surely this is the largest and most comprehensive array of philosophic presentations ever assembled.

You will see that the Program accomplishes several things at once. First, there are plenaries and other program units devoted to the main theme of the Congress, paideia. Paideia is interpreted not only from within the tradition of ancient Greek and European philosophy but also from within the traditions of East and South Asia, Islamic culture, and the traditional cultures of Africa and the Americas. Second, there is a fair sampling of programs devoted to the presentation and critical exploration of American philosophies, the traditions of the host country; we particularly hope that philosophers from abroad will avail themselves of the opportunity to investigate American philosophies while visiting Boston, where so many originated and flourished.

Third, the Program Committee has been very deliberate in creating a program of invited papers that explores philosophic topics and approaches of a wide diversity of kinds, lifting up as many cultural and national traditions as possible and bringing different styles of philosophic thinking into dialogue. We have not viewed the Congress as the occasion for philosophers merely to do in one place the same things they do at home; we have viewed it rather as the opportunity for dialogue among ways of philosophic thought that do not customarily address one another. Whether the dialogue occurs, to be sure, depends on all of us together, not on the form of the program alone.

Fourth, and most exciting, this program contains volunteered papers from a vast array of thinkers. More than the intentions of even the most ecumenical of Program Committees, what you the delegates to the Congress present as expressive of your philosophic interests defines the nature of philosophy today and for the near future. We have vetted the volunteered papers for seriousness, clarity, and integrity, but not for their definitions of what counts as philosophy, and we have not applied the standards of any one school of philosophy to judge other approaches. In all, this program represents a remarkable collection of serious philosophic inquiries.

On behalf of the American Organizing Committee I invite you to explore this program with curiosity and energy. We hope you also will enjoy your stay in Boston and other places in North America to which you might be traveling. If there is anything that Professor Hintikka, my co-chair, or I, or Professor Olson the Executive Director and his staff, can do to make your participation more significant, please do not hesitate to make your interest known. Enjoy the Congress.

Sincerely yours,

Robert C. Neville

TWENTIETH WORLD CONGRESS OF PHILOSOPHY

Salutations du Directeur Exécutif du Comité Organisateur Américain, Inc.

Au nom d' AOC, je souhaite à tous les participants au Congrès une bienvenue chaleureuse et une semaine productive à Boston. J'espère que cette semaine s'avèrera être significative pour vous tous.

Les préparations pour le Vingtième Congrès Mondial commenceront voici près de dix ans. À la suite de l'agrément donné à la proposition soumise au FISP après le Congrès de Moscou de 1993, nous avons formé une société anonyme suivant les lois du Massachusetts. Nos efforts ont été particulièrement intenses depuis 1995, et, sans les services dévoués de notre personnel, l'organisation de cet événement n'aurait pas été possible.

Des mentions spéciales sont fort méritées par M. Bud Heckman qui servit en tant qu' Administrateur du Projet durant ces premiers stades de 1996 à 1997, et Dr. Kevin Stoehr qui remplit ce rôle depuis le début de 1998. Messieurs Heckman et Stoehr ont été responsables de surveiller les progrès quotidiens du AOC, et ils se sont dévoués bien au-delà de ce à quoi on pourrait s'attendre. L' espacement et le dressage du programme final ont été la responsabilité de Dr. Mark Gedney. M. Gedney s'est lancé sur la tâche d'organiser plus de 2,500 présentations avec vigueur et enthousiasme. Combinant leurs efforts avec ceux de notre talentueux Webmaster Tom Stone, Messieurs Heckman, Stoehr, et Gedney ont atteint l'avant-garde de la technologie actuelle pour un congrès de cette magnitude. Leurs contributions au site Web continueront avec la publication des communications présentées. Si les participants au Congrès souhaitent exprimer leur reconnaissance, veuillez vous adresser à ces individus, ainsi qu'aux autres membres de notre personnel: Ms. Georgia Maheras, M. Timothy Freiermuth, M. Amos Yong, et M. Stephen Dawson.

Bien qu'il ne m'est pas possible de remercier tous ceux qui ont contribué si généreusement à l'organisation de cet événement, une mention spéciale d'appréciation est due au Philosophy Documentation Center, à l'American Philosophical Association, et aux institutions co-sponsorisantes: Boston College, Brown University, Suffolk University, Wellesley College, et l'University of Massachusetts. L'institution sponsorisante principale a bien-sûr été Boston University. Sans le support constant et les encouragements du Chancelier John Silver, du Président Jon Westling, et Principal Dennis Berkey, l'organisation du Vingtième Congrès Mondial de Philosophie aurait été impossible.

Veuillez consulter la section des remerciements et crédits de votre Programme afin de trouver la liste complète de tous ceux qui ont contribué significativement à la réalisation du Congrès de Boston. J'offre mes excuses à quiconque aurait été omis de cette liste par erreur.

Avec mes meilleurs vœux,

Professeur Alan M. Olson
Directeur Administratif
Professeur de Religion et de Philosophie

TWENTIETH WORLD CONGRESS OF PHILOSOPHY

Chers Collègues,

Il est un honneur et un plaisir pour moi de vous souhaiter la bienvenue au Vingtième Congrès Mondial de Philosophie. Il s'agit sûrement ici de la plus extensive et compréhensive représentation de communications philosophiques jamais rassemblée.

Vous verrez que le programme accomplit plusieurs choses d'emblée. Primo, les plénières ainsi que d'autres sections du programme, sont dévoués au thème principal du Congrès, "la Paideia." La Paideia est ici interprétée non seulement suivant la tradition philosophique de la Grèce Antique et de l'Europe, mais aussi suivant la tradition de l'Asie de l'Est et du Sud, de la culture Islamique, et des cultures de l'Afrique et des Amériques.

Secundo, vous trouverez une portion solide du programme dévouée à la représentation et à l'exploration critique des philosophies américaines et des traditions du pays hôte. Nous espérons en particulier que les philosophes provenant d'autres pays profiteront de cette opportunité d'explorer les philosophies américaines lors de leur visite à Boston, cité où tant de philosophies ont trouvé vie et ont fleuri.

Tertio, le Comité du Programme a fait des efforts délibérés afin de créer un programme incluant une grande diversité de communications philosophiques, abordant autant de traditions culturelles et nationales que possible, et invitant différents styles philosophiques à dialoguer. Nous ne voulions pas que le Congrès soit simplement une occasion pour les philosophes d'effectuer sur place les mêmes choses qu'ils accomplissent chez eux. Plutôt, nous avons voulu profiter de cette occasion unique pour créer des dialogues parmi les différentes philosophies qui ne communiquent en général pas entre-elles. Il en tient à nous tous de créer ce dialogue, et non pas seulement de compter sur le programme lui-même.

Quarto, ce que ce programme offre de plus enthousiasmant sont les communications gracieusement offertes par un vaste nombre de philosophes. Bien au-delà des intentions de même les plus œcuméniques des membres du Comité du Programme, ce que vous, les délégués au Congrès, présenterez comme représentant vos intérêts philosophiques définit la nature de la philosophie actuelle et de notre futur proche. Nous avons examiné les communications qui nous ont été présentées pour leur réflexion sérieuse, clarté, et leur intégrité, et non pas pour leur idée de ce qui représente une vraie philosophie. Nous n'avons pas non plus basé nos décisions sur les normes d'une philosophie unique. Dans l'ensemble, ce programme représente une collection remarquable d'enquêtes philosophiques de nature sérieuse.

Au nom du Comité Organisateur Américain, je vous invite à explorer ce programme avec curiosité et énergie. Nous espérons que vous profiterez de votre séjour à Boston et dans les autres parties de l'Amérique du Nord qu'il vous conviendra peut-être de visiter. S'il demeure quelque chose que Professeur Hintika, le co-président, Professeur Olson, le Directeur Administratif, son personnel, ou que je puisse faire afin de rendre votre séjour plus effectif, n'hésitez pas à partager avec nous ce qui vous intéresse. Profitez bien du Congrès.

Cordialement à vous,

Robert C. Neville
Co-Président, Vingtième Congrès Mondial de Philosophie

TWENTIETH WORLD CONGRESS OF PHILOSOPHY

*Persönliches Grußwort des Leiters des Amerikanischen Organisationskomitees
(AOC, American Organizing Committee, Inc.)*

Im Namen des Amerikanischen Organisationskomitees möchte ich alle Kongreßteilnehmer herzlich willkommen heißen und Ihnen eine produktive Woche in Boston wünschen. Wir hoffen, daß dies für Sie ein bedeutsames Ereignis sein wird.

Die Vorbereitungen für den Zwanzigsten Weltkongress für Philosophie begannen vor fast zehn Jahren. Nachdem der Antrag Bostons bei der Internationalen Föderation der philosophischen Gesellschaften (FISP) im Anschluß an den Moskauer Kongress angenommen worden war, richteten wir gemäß den Vereinsregeln des Staates Massachusetts ein Organisationskomitee ein. 1995 trat die Organisationsarbeit für dieses Ereignis dann in einen Zustand erhöhter Intensität, eine Arbeit, die wir ohne die hingebungsvollen Dienste unserer Mitarbeiter unmöglich hätten leisten können.

Besondere Erwähnung verdienen Mr. Bud Heckman, der das Projekt im Anfangsstadium von 1996-1997 leitend organisierte, und Dr. Kevin Stoehr, der diese Funktion seit Anfang 1998 ausübt. Bud und Kevin waren verantwortlich für die tagtäglichen Geschäfte des AOC und leisteten über alle Erwartung hinaus selbstlose Dienste. Die Organisation der Räumlichkeiten sowie Veranstaltungskalender und Programmgestaltung waren das Aufgabengebiet von Dr. Mark Gedney. Mark entledigte sich mit Energie und Enthusiasmus der überwältigenden Aufgabe, über 2500 Einzelbeiträge zu organisieren. Unterstützt von unserem Webmaster Tom Stone leisteten Bud, Kevin und Mark bahnbrechende Arbeit auf dem Gebiet der Verwendung von Netzwerktechnologie im Dienste einer Kongressorganisation dieser Größenordnung, eine Arbeit, die sie fortsetzen werden, wenn es daran gehen wird, die Vorträge auf dem Web zugänglich zu machen. Der Ausdruck jedweden Maßes an Dankbarkeit, die Sie als Kongreßteilnehmer empfinden mögen, sollte angemessenerweise an diese Personen sowie an unsere anderen Mitarbeiter: Ms. Georgia Maheras, Mr. Timothy Freiermuth, Mr. Amos Young und Mr. Stephen Dawson, gerichtet werden.

Während ich unmöglich aller jener in Dankbarkeit gedenken kann, die an der Organisation dieses Ereignisses hingebungsvoll beteiligt waren, ist es doch angebracht, ein besonderes Wort des Dankes an das Philosophy Documentation Center, die American Philosophical Association sowie an die mittragenden Einrichtungen, Boston College, Brown University, Suffolk University, Wellesley College und die University of Massachusetts, zu richten. Der Hauptsponsor ist natürlich Boston University. Ohne die verlässliche Unterstützung und Ermutigung durch Kanzler John Silber, Präsident Jon Westling sowie Provost Dennis Berkey wäre die Organisation des Zwanzigsten Weltkongresses für Philosophie unmöglich gewesen.

Ich verweise Sie auf die Abteilung "Acknowledgements and Credits" Ihres Programmheftes für eine vollständige Liste derjenigen, die zum Gelingen des Kongresses in Boston einen besondern Beitrag geleistet haben. Diejenigen, die wir dabei aus Versehen ausgelassen haben, bitte ich um Entschuldigung.

Mit den besten Wünschen,

Professor Alan M. Olson
Geschäftsführender Direktor, AOC, Inc.

TWENTIETH WORLD CONGRESS OF PHILOSOPHY

Sehr verehrte Kollegen,

Es ist eine Ehre und ein Vergnügen, Sie mit diesem Programmheft zum Zwanzigsten Weltkongress für Philosophie willkommen zu heißen. Dies ist mit Sicherheit die größte und umfassendste Versammlung von Philosophen, die je stattgefunden hat.

Sie werden feststellen, daß das Programm mehrere Funktionen gleichzeitig erfüllt. Zunächst gibt es da die Plenarsitzungen und andere Programmeinheiten, die sich mit dem Kongreßthema, der Paideia, beschäftigen. Paideia wird dabei nicht nur aus der Sicht der klassisch griechischen und europäischen Philosophietradition heraus interpretiert, sondern auch aus der Sicht der Traditionen Süd- und Ostasiens, der islamischen Kultur sowie der traditionellen Kulturen Afrikas, Nord- und Südamerikas. Zweitens finden Sie eine repräsentative Auswahl an Programmen, die der Darstellung und kritischen Untersuchung amerikanischer Philosophien, d.h. den Traditionen des gastgebenden Landes, gewidmet sind. Wir hoffen dabei besonders, daß Philosophen aus dem Ausland die Gelegenheit ihres Aufenthaltes in Boston wahrnehmen werden, amerikanische Philosophien kennenzulernen, von denen manche hier ihren Ausgangspunkt nahmen und florierten.

Drittens hat das Programmkomitee ein sorgfältiges Angebot an eingeladenen Vorträgen kreiert, das den Zweck verfolgt, vielerlei Arten von philosophischen Themen und Zugängen zu bedenken, wobei so viele kulturelle und nationale Traditionen als möglich zur Sprache und verschiedene Stilrichtungen philosophischen Denkens miteinander ins Gespräch kommen sollen. Wir sehen den Kongreß nicht als eine Gelegenheit für Philosophen, hier dasselbe wie an ihren jeweiligen Heimatorten zu treiben. Vielmehr betrachten wir ihn als eine Chance zum Dialog zwischen Wegen des philosophischen Denkens, die sich üblicherweise nicht gegenseitig ansprechen. Ob solch ein Dialog tatsächlich stattfindet, hängt natürlich nicht von der Form des Programmes allein, sondern vielmehr von uns allen ab.

Viertens, und wohl am spannendsten, enthält das Programm die von einer ungeheuren Vielfalt an Philosophen selbst initiierten Vorträge. Philosophie heute und in der nächsten Zukunft kann nicht selbst von den besten Vorsätzen eines höchst ökumenischen Programmkomitees bestimmt werden, sondern allein davon, was Sie, die Kongreßdelegierten, als Ausdruck Ihres Philosophierens darstellen. Wir haben die Themenvorschläge auf Ernsthaftigkeit, Klarheit, und Integrität hin, nicht jedoch auf ihre Definition dessen geprüft, was als Philosophie gilt, noch haben wir die Maßstäbe irgendeiner bestimmten philosophischen Schule zur Beurteilung anderer Zugänge herangezogen.

Insgesamt stellt dieses Programm eine bemerkenswerte Sammlung ernsthafter philosophischer Untersuchungen dar. Ich lade Sie im Namen des Amerikanischen Organisationskomitees dazu ein, dieses Programm mit Neugierde und Energie zu studieren. Wir hoffen außerdem, daß Sie Ihren Aufenthalt in Boston und gegebenenfalls an den anderen Orten in den Vereinigten Staaten, in die Sie vielleicht noch reisen werden, genießen werden. Bitte wenden Sie sich vertrauensvoll an mich, an Herrn Professor Hintikka, meinen Mitvorsitzenden, oder an den geschäftsführenden Direktor, Herrn Professor Olson, und seine Mitarbeiter, falls wir Ihnen bei der Teilnahme noch in weiterer Weise sinnvoll behilflich sein können. Genießen Sie den Kongreß!

Mit herzlichen Grüßen,

Robert C. Neville
Mitvorsitzender, Zwanzigster Weltkongreß für Philosophie

TWENTIETH WORLD CONGRESS OF PHILOSOPHY

Saludos Personales del Director Ejecutivo del Comité Organizador Americano

De parte del American Organizing Committee, Inc., quiero darles a todos los participantes en el Congreso una bienvenida calurosa y desearles una semana productiva en Boston. Esperamos que éste sea un evento significativo para ustedes.

Los preparativos para el XX Congreso Mundial comenzaron hace casi diez años. Habiendo aceptado el propuesto hecho al FISP después del Congreso en Moscú en 1993, nos incorporamos bajo las leyes de Massachusetts. Nuestro trabajo se ha intensificado desde 1995, y sin los esfuerzos dedicados de nuestro equipo, la organización de este evento no hubiera sido posible.

Debemos reconocer especialmente al Sr. Bud Heckman, quien fue administrador del proyecto durante las etapas iniciales, 1996-1997, y al Dr. Kevin Stoehr quien ha desempeñado dicho papel desde principios de 1998. Bud y Kevin han sido los responsables de las operaciones diarias del AOC, Inc., y han servido abnegadamente más allá de lo esperado. El manejo del espacio, la programación, y el diseño del programa final han sido las tareas del Dr. Mark Gedney. Mark ha confrontado con entusiasmo la tarea sumamente difícil de organizar más de 2,500 ponencias. Trabajando con nuestro talentoso webmaster, Tom Stone, Bud, Kevin, y Mark han sido pioneros en el uso de la alta tecnología al servicio de un Congreso de esta magnitud, y su involucramiento con la red de información continuará cuando empecemos a publicar las ponencias contribuidas. La gratitud que los participantes quieren expresar se puede dirigir apropiadamente a las personas mencionadas y a los otros miembros de nuestro equipo, la Srita. Georgia Maheras, el Sr. Timothy Friermuth, el Sr. Amos Yong, y el Sr. Stephen Dawson.

Aunque no puedo ni comenzar a dar aquí las gracias a todos los que hayan dado de si mismo tan generosamente en la organización de este evento, debo dirigir nuestro agradecimiento especial al Centro de Documentación Filosofía, a la Asociación Filosófica Americana, y a las instituciones que son nuestros co-anfitriones, Boston College, Brown University, Suffolk University, Wellesley College, y la Universidad de Massachusetts. El anfitrión institucional principal, claro, ha sido Boston University. Sin el apoyo y ánimo constantes del Canciller John Silber, el Presidente Jon Westling, y el Provost Dennis Berkey, la organización del XX Congreso Mundial de Filosofía no hubiera sido posible.

Por favor vean la sección de Reconocimientos y Creditos en su programa para una lista completa de quienes hayan desempeñado papeles significantes en el logro de este Congreso en Boston. Mis disculpas a cualquier persona merecedora que no haya sido mencionado en las listas.

Con mis mejores deseos,

Professor Alan M. Olson

TWENTIETH WORLD CONGRESS OF PHILOSOPHY

Estimados Colegas:

Es un honor y un placer darles la bienvenida al XX Congreso Mundial de Filosofía por medio de este Libro de Programa. Seguramente ésta es la reunión más grande y más comprensiva de presentaciones filosóficas que se haya jamás llevado a cabo.

Verán que el Programa logra varias funciones a la vez. En primer lugar, hay sesiones plenarias y otras unidades de programa dedicadas al tema central del Congreso, paideia. Paideia se interpreta no solamente desde la tradición de la filosofía de Grecia antigua y de Europa, sino también desde las tradiciones de Asia Oriental y Sur, de la cultura islámica, y de las culturas tradicionales de África y de las Américas. En segundo lugar, hay una muestra de programas dedicados a la presentación y la investigación crítica de las filosofías americanas, las tradiciones del país anfitrión. Esperamos en particular que los filósofos de otros países se aprovechen de la oportunidad de investigar las filosofías americanas mientras estén de visita en Boston donde originaron y florecieron tantas de ellas.

En tercer lugar, el Comité del Programa ha creado con mucha deliberación un programa de ponencias a invitación que exploran temas filosóficos y enfoques de muchos tipos, realizando cuantas tradiciones culturales y nacionales como sea posible y trayendo al diálogo estilos diferentes de pensamiento filosófico. No concebimos el Congreso únicamente como una ocasión para que los filósofos hagan en un solo lugar lo mismo que hacen en sus países propios; lo hemos concebido más bien como una oportunidad para el diálogo entre personas con maneras de pensamiento filosófico que de costumbre no se dirigen los unos a los otros. Que el diálogo ocurra, seguro es, depende de todos juntos, no solamente de la forma del programa.

En cuarto lugar, y más emocionante, este programa contiene ponencias voluntarias de un grupo muy grande de pensadores. Más que las intenciones aun del Comité de Programa más ecuménica, lo que ustedes, los delegados al Congreso, presenten como expresivo de sus intereses filosóficos define la naturaleza de la filosofía hoy y en el futuro cercano. Hemos seleccionado las ponencias tomando en cuenta su seriedad, claridad, e integridad, pero no hemos eliminado ninguno a causa sus definiciones de lo que cuenta como filosofía, ni hemos aplicado las normas de una escuela de filosofía en particular para juzgar otros enfoques.

En conjunto, el programa representa una colección asombrosa de investigaciones filosóficas serias.

De parte del Comité Organizador Americano, les invito a investigar el programa con curiosidad y energía. Esperamos también que gocen de su visita a Boston y a otros lugares en Norteamérica a donde viajen. Si hay algo que el Profesor Hintikka, mi co-director, o yo, o el Profesor Olson, el Director Ejecutivo y su equipo podamos hacer para que su participación sea más significativo, esperamos que nos lo haga saber a la primera oportunidad.

Sinceramente,

Robert C. Neville
Co-director, XX Congreso Mundial de Filosofía

ПРИВЕТСТВИЕ ИСПОЛНИТЕЛЬНОГО ДИРЕКТОРА АМЕРИКАНСКОГО ОРГАНИЗАЦИОННОГО КОМИТЕТА, Инк.

От имени Американского Организационного Комитета позвольте поприветствовать всех участников Конгресса и пожелать продуктивной рабочей недели в Бостоне. Мы надеемся, что это событие станет памятным для вас.

Подготовка к Конгрессу началась почти десять лет тому назад. После того, как предложение провести Конгресс в Бостоне (после Московского конгресса в 1993 году) было принято МФФО, подготовительная работа проводилась в соответствии с законами Массачусеттса. Подготовка к конгрессу стала особенно интенсивной после 1995 года и не могла быть проведена без подвижнической работы всех тех, кто помогал в его организации.

Особая благодарность должна быть выражена Бадю Хекману, администратору проекта на его начальной стадии, с 1996 по 1997 г., а также Др. Кевину Штиеру, администратору проекта с начала 1998 года. Бад и Кевин отвечали за повседневную деятельность АОК, самоотверженно работали далеко за пределами своего рабочего времени и должностных обязанностей. Составление расписания и программы Конгресса, а также подготовка помещений были прерогативой Др. Марка Гедни. Марк взялся за решение сложнейшей задачи организации 2.500 докладов с большим рвением и энтузиазмом. Сотрудничая с нашим талантливым Вебмастером, Томом Стоном, Бад, Кевин и Марк освоили высокие компьютерные технологии для того, чтобы обслуживать конгресс такого масштаба; их работа в этой области продолжится с началом публикаций докладов Конгресса. Какую бы благодарность не пожелали выразить участники конгресса его организаторам, она будет по достоинству отнесена на счет работы других наших сотрудников, таких, как Джорджия Махерас, Тимоти Фриемоф, Эймос Янг, Стивен Доусон.

Поскольку нельзя поблагодарить лично всех наших многочисленных помощников, самоотверженно работавших для организации конгресса, позвольте выразить благодарность сотрудникам Философского документационного центра, Американской философской ассоциации, а также нашим спонсирующим организациям, Бостонскому колледжу, Браунскому университету, Уззли Колледжу, а также Университету Массачусеттса. Организация Двадцатого всемирного философского конгресса не была бы возможной также без поддержки канцлера Джона Силбера, президента Джона Вестлинга и провоста Денниса Берки.

Для полного списка тех, кто оказал существенную помощь в организации конгресса мы отправляем к специальному разделу благодарностей в нашей программе. Мы приносим извинения всем тем нашим помощникам, чьи имена не перечислены в этом списке.

С наилучшими пожеланиями,

Профессор Алан Олсон,
Исполнительный директор конгресса
Профессор религии и философии
Бостонский университет

TWENTIETH WORLD CONGRESS OF PHILOSOPHY

Дорогие коллеги!

Мне выпала большая честь и удовольствие приветствовать вас на Двадцатом всемирном философском конгрессе и представить Книгу конгресса. Это, без сомнения, самая большая и значительная программа философских выступлений, когда-либо представленных в рамках одного форума.

Книга эта, как вы убедитесь, решает сразу несколько задач. Прежде всего, в ней обозначены пленарные и секционные заседания, посвященные основной теме конгресса – пайдее. Пайдее интерпретируется в рамках не только античной греческой и европейской философии, но также в традициях восточной и южной Азии, культуры ислама, традиционных культур Африки и Америки. Второе направление, широко освещенное здесь, - это презентация и культурный анализ американской философии, традиций страны-организатора конгресса; мы надеемся, что зарубежные философы смогут лучше познакомиться с ними как раз в Бостоне, городе, где многие из американских философских школ зачинались и развивались.

В-третьих, здесь отражено настойчивое устремление Организационного комитета собрать как можно более представительную коллекцию приглашенных докладов, отражающих самые разнообразные философские подходы, поднимающих и рассматривающих максимально возможное число культурных и национальных традиций, представляющих различные типы философского мышления диалогизирующими друг с другом. Мы не стремились к тому, чтобы этот конгресс стал местом, где философы просто представили в рамках одного форума то, что они делают дома; нашей целью было создание условий для диалога между различными направлениями философствования, т.е., того, что не так часто случается при их встрече. Получится ли этот диалог, зависит теперь уже не столько от программы, сколько от всех нас, участников этого конгресса.

В-четвертых, и это, пожалуй, самое главное, в нашей программе представлены доклады большого числа философов, приславших их для участия в конгрессе. То, что содержится в этих докладах, превышает надежды даже наиболее экуменической части нашего Оргкомитета: в них представлена картина того, как видится вам, участникам конгресса, настоящее и будущее философии, ее природа и ее судьбы. Мы рецензировали ваши тексты только с позиций их серьезности, ясности и профессионализма, но не в части того, что предлагалось в качестве определения философии; мы не прилагали, также, стандарты какой-либо одной философской школы к оценкам других философских направлений.

Учитывая все вышесказанное, данную программу можно оценить как выдающуюся коллекцию серьезных философских разработок.

От имени Американского организационного комитета позвольте пригласить вас ознакомиться с программой вдумчиво и с энтузиазмом. Мы надеемся также, что ваше пребывание в Бостоне и других городах Соединенных Штатов, которые вы посетите в связи с конгрессом, будет интересным. Если мы все, со-председатели Конгресса, профессор Яакко Хинтика и я, его Исполнительный директор, профессор Алан Олсон, а также наш персонал, может что-то сделать для улучшения вашего пребывания на конгрессе, сообщите нам и мы будем рады удовлетворить ваши просьбы. Пусть ваше участие в конгрессе будет приятным и запоминающимся.

С искренним уважением,

Роберт Си. Невилл
со-председатель, Всемирный философский конгресс
