Philosophy Documentation Center’s E-Collection

Content and Access Options

The Philosophy Documentation Center’s E-Collection contains over 200 scholarly journals, book series, conference proceedings, and other publications in philosophy, applied ethics, and religious studies. Coverage of most titles is complete—all issues, all volumes. We offer a range of access options, and special arrangements can be made with professional organizations for member access to bundles or single titles. Text is displayed in PDF or HTML formats, and all text is fully searchable. We provide access to continuing publications and archival collections, and a selection of open access titles is available. Open access titles are identified with this symbol "open access".

PDC also offers print and print + online options for many publications. New titles in several languages are added each year.
