

American Catholic Philosophical Quarterly
(Formerly The New Scholasticism)

Volume 95

Issue No. 1

Winter 2021

Table of Contents

Articles

The Constitution of the Human Person as Discovery and Awakening	CHRISTOF BETSCHART, OCD	1
Perfect Being Theology and Analogy	GREGORY R. P. STACEY	21
Why Does the Wood Not Ignite Itself? Duns Scotus's Defense of the Will's Self-Motion	YUL KIM	49
Curiosity: Vice or Virtue? Augustine and Lonergan	PATRICK H. BYRNE	69
Acknowledging Animal Rights: A Thomistic Perspective	PAUL A. MACDONALD JR.	95

Disputed Questions

Thomistic Thoughts About Thought and Talk	REV. NICANOR PIER GIORGIO AUSTRIACO, OP	117
Does Knowing What Things Are Require Language (As a System of Physical or Imaginable Signs)?	MARIE GEORGE	131
On the Limits of Abstraction: A Response to Professor Marie George	REV. NICANOR PIER GIORGIO AUSTRIACO, OP	145

A Rambutan by Any Other Name Would Taste as Sweet: Response to Professor Nicanor Pier Giorgio Austriaco, OP	MARIE GEORGE	149
---	--------------	-----

Book Reviews

From Human Dignity to Natural Law: An Introduction (Richard Berquist)	JAMES M. JACOBS	153
--	-----------------	-----

John Henry Newman on Truth and its Counterfeits: A Guide For Our Times (Reinhard Hütter)	PHILIP ROLNICK	155
---	----------------	-----

Intention, Character, and Double Effect (Lawrence Masek)	DANIEL SHIELDS	160
---	----------------	-----