

Editorial Board

David Bevan	CEIBS, China
Vincent Blok	Wageningen University, The Netherlands
René ten Bos (Europe Editor)	Radboud University, The Netherlands
Jane Collier	Cambridge Judge Business School, United Kingdom
Geert Demuijnck	EDHEC Business School, Lille
Ghislain Deslandes	ESCP Europe, Paris
Georges Enderle	Mendoza College of Business, University of Notre Dame
Joan Fontrodona	IESE Business School, Spain
R. Edward Freeman (US Editor)	Darden Graduate School of Business, University of Virginia
Tobias Goessling	Tilburg University, The Netherlands
Michelle Greenwood	Monash University, Australia
Howard Harris	University of South Australia
Laura P. Hartman	Boston University
Johan Hattingh	Stellenbosch University
Xiaohu Lu	Shanghai Academy of Social Sciences
Richard Nielsen	Boston College, Massachusetts
Nicola Pless	ESADE, Spain
Andreas Rasche	University of Warwick, United Kingdom
Lorenzo Sacconi	University of Trento, Italy
Sybille Sachs	University of Zurich, Switzerland
Laura Spence	Royal Holloway, United Kingdom
Vasanthi Srinivasan	Indian Institute of Management, Bangalore
Mitsuhiro Umezu (Asia Editor)	Keio University, Tokyo
Josef Wieland	Constance University of Applied Sciences, Germany

business & professional ethics journal

Vol. 34, No. 1, Spring 2015

In this Issue

Articles

Marc-Charles Ingerson, Kristen Bell DeTienne, Edwin E. Gantt, and Richard N. Williams Practicing the Healer’s Art: An Agentic-Relational Approach to Negotiation	1
Arieahn Matamonasa-Bennett Putting the Horse before Descartes: Native American Paradigms and Ethics in Equine-Assisted Therapies	23
Javier Pinto Garay The Concept of Work in a Common Good Theory of the Firm	45
Katia Dupret Situated Techno-Ethics in Businesses	71
Thomas A. Hemphill and Waheeda Lillevik The Global Economic Ethic Manifesto: A Retrospective	95
Klaus M. Leisinger and Josef Wieland “The Global Economic Ethic Manifesto: A Retrospective”: A Response from Two Co-Authors	121
Regina Wentzel Wolfe Response to Hemphill and Lillevik, “The Global Economic Ethic Manifesto: A Retrospective”	127
Patricia H. Werhane Global Economic Ethic —Consequences for Global Business: A Response.....	131
Notes on Contributors	137