

Civil War History

CONTENTS FOR JUNE 2016

Volume Sixty-Two · Number Two

Hubbell Prize Awarded	118
Editor's Overview	119
The Future of Civil War History
JAMES J. BROOMALL, PETER S. CARMICHAEL, AND JILL OGLINE TITUS	120
Interpreting Race, Slavery, and United States Colored Troops at Civil War Battlefields
EMMANUEL DABNEY, BETH PARNICZA, AND KEVIN M. LEVIN	131
From Women's History to Gender History: Revamping Interpretive Programming at Richmond National Battlefield Park
ASHLEY WHITEHEAD LUSKEY AND ROBERT M. DUNKERLY	149
Relevance, Resonance, and Historiography: Interpreting the Lives and Experiences of Civil War Soldiers
PETER S. CARMICHAEL	170
"The Broader and Purer Purpose": Lessons from the Shenandoah Valley's Monuments and Battlefield Landscapes on Introducing Elements of Civil War Memory to General Audiences
JONATHAN A. NOYALAS	186
The Civil War Battlefield Staff Ride in the Twenty-first Century
CHRISTIAN B. KELLER AND ETHAN S. RAFUSE	201
Book Reviews and Books Received	214

Cover image: A park ranger interprets the Gettysburg Battlefield. Image courtesy of Miranda Harple at Gettysburg College.