

Essays in Philosophy

A Biannual Journal

Volume 21, No. 1-2

Activism and Philosophy

Editor's Introduction

Introduction

| | |
|--------------------------|---|
| Ramona Ilea | 1 |
|--------------------------|---|

Essays

How to Be a (Good) Philosopher-Activist

| | |
|-------------------------------|---|
| Julinna C. Oxley | 6 |
|-------------------------------|---|

The Pragmatist's Call to Democratic Activism in Higher Education

| | |
|--------------------------------|----|
| Eric Thomas Weber | 29 |
|--------------------------------|----|

The Philosopher as Moral Activist: A Call for Ethical Caution in Publication

| | |
|------------------------|----|
| Kyle York | 46 |
|------------------------|----|

Ethics Across Campus and the Curriculum: An Overview of Work in Progress

| | |
|----------------------------|----|
| Amy McKiernan | 76 |
|----------------------------|----|

Making Room for Activist Voices in a Philosophically Sound Theory of Disability: The Solidarity Thesis Versus the Welfarist Approach

| | |
|-------------------------|----|
| R. A. Main | 92 |
|-------------------------|----|

Engaged Philosophy: Showcasing Philosophers-Activists Working with the Media, Community Groups, Political Groups, Prisons, and Students

| | |
|--|-----|
| Susan C. C. Hawthorne, Ramona C. Ilea, Monica "Mo" Janzen | 109 |
|--|-----|

Book Reviews

Review of Food, Animals, and the Environment: An Ethical Approach, by Christopher Schlottmann and Jeff Sebo

| | |
|-----------------------------|-----|
| Trevor Hedberg | 120 |
|-----------------------------|-----|

| | |
|---|-----|
| Review of Who Should Die? The Ethics of Killing in War , Eds. Ryan Jenkins, Michael Robillard and Bradley Jay Strawser Jovana Davidovic | 124 |
| Review of The Moral Nexus , by R. Jay Wallace Emily McGill | 130 |
| Review of Reputation: What It Is and Why It Matters , by Gloria Origgi Kaci Harrison | 135 |